

Symposium on Gender & South Asia: New Directions

9.45am-10.00am Registration & Welcome

10.00-10.45am Yasmin Sakia (North Carolina)

'Forgetting/Remembering: Rethinking a postcolonial archive of gender and violence in 1971, Bangladesh'

10.45am-11.30am Nayanika Mookherjee (Lancaster)

'Available motherhood, the Bangladesh war and 'state of exception'

11.30am-12.00am COFFEE

12.00pm- 12.45pm Srila Roy (Nottingham)

Loss and Melancholia in the Indian Women's Movement

12.45pm-1.30pm Karen Adler (Nottingham): DISCUSSION

1.30pm-2.45pm LUNCH

2.45pm-3.30pm Parvati Raghuram (Open University)

Gender and technology: Indian women in narratives of modernity

3.30pm-4.15pm Sarah Hodges (Warwick)

Eugenics, Gender and History in Modern South Asia

4.15pm-4.45pm COFFEE

4.45pm-5.30pm Siobhan Lambert-Hurley (Nottingham Trent)

Narrating the Everyday: Muslim Women, History and the Roznamchah

5.30pm-6.00pm Stephen Legg (Nottingham): DISCUSSION

Monday 16th June 2008
A41, Clive Granger Building
University of Nottingham

Funded by the Gender Histories Network, School of Geography, School of Sociology & Social Policy & the Institute of Asia-Pacific Studies, University of Nottingham

Conference Organisers: Stephen Legg & Srila Roy (Enquires at stephen.legg@nottingham.ac.uk)

There is no registration fee but please confirm attendance for catering purposes.