Accommodation
- University halls of residences are available but not guaranteed to exchange students. Most rooms are shared between two students with a bathroom shared between four. Accommodation is self-catered with a kitchen on each floor, but there are cafeterias on campus and in hall that provide subsidised meals for students. All halls have common rooms, a laundry and recreational facilities. Internet access and a telephone are provided in each room in most of the halls. Hall fees will not normally include air-conditioning which is payable depending on usage. HKU halls are known for their strong hall spirit, and each hall has its own tradition, culture, and unique characteristics.

- Private accommodation is available but quite limited and significantly more expensive. Most landlords tend to only consider a one-year lease. Students can apply for a bursary of up to £160 per month at HKU for private renting
