What is an “Arts into Business” Speaker?
We’re looking for enthusiastic alumni to participate as a panel member in a careers event for students from the Faculty of Arts, from a range of subjects and years. As an “Arts into Business” Speaker you’ll be asked to talk for 5-10 minutes about your personal experience of the world of work and take part in an audience Q&A.

As an “Arts into Business” Speaker we’d love to hear about:
- What made you choose your degree
- Your experience of the graduate recruitment process – good and bad!
- A typical day-in-the-life of your role
- What you enjoy about your role, organisation and sector
- Any tips you have for students looking to do something similar with their career
- The skills and experience you’ve taken from your degree and how you’ve applied these in the workplace

Who can be an “Arts into Business” Speaker?
If you studied a subject in the Faculty of Arts and would like the opportunity to practice your public speaking skills, whilst making a positive impact on the lives of students – this opportunity could be for you!

We’re looking for alumni who:
- Have between 2-10 years’ work experience post-graduation
- Are currently working in a business or commerce role
- UK based and able to travel to and from the event in the same evening
- Enjoy sharing their personal experience of their degree subject, the graduate recruitment process and career to date

When and where does the opportunity take place?
Date: Thursday 12 October 2017
Time: 17:30 – 20:00
Location: University Park Campus, Nottingham
Expected number of volunteering hours: 2.5hrs, plus preparation and travel time

Who will benefit from your contribution?
Your contribution will help provide students with a unique insight into how one can make the successful transition from Arts student to a role in the business world. Hearing an authentic representation of what Nottingham alumni go on to do after graduation is really inspiring for our current students. In post-event evaluation surveys from similar events, students have commented: “I found it very helpful that all speakers were from different [media] sectors and they have all taken different routes to end up at exciting and stimulating career stages”.

How do I apply to be an “Arts into Business” Speaker?
Please complete an application form today – a member of the team will then be in touch to discuss the opportunity further.
