

10 - 13 February 2011 in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

It is a pleasure to announce the 2011 Meeting of the Asia-Pacific Economic Science Association, which will be hosted by the University of Nottingham Malaysia Campus.

Registration and Submissions

Submissions of abstracts will be accepted until 17 December 2010. We invite papers from all areas of experimental economics broadly interpreted to encompass behavioural economics and neuroeconomics. As in previous APESA meetings, there will be a number of travel scholarships for students to present at this conference. Fees and registration deadlines are available from the conference website (see below).

Conference Venue

The conference will take place in the University's City Teaching Centre in Chulan Tower in the heart of Kuala Lumpur. The venue is within easy walking distance of the city's main shopping and entertainment area and next door to two 5-star hotels for which discounted rates have been arranged.

Kuala Lumpur

Kuala Lumpur, the capital of Malaysia, is a major metropolis of South-East Asia and has an all-year tropical climate. The city's 1.8 million inhabitants make up a fascinating blend of Malay, Chinese and Indian culture. English is widely spoken and understood. The city has a modern, efficient infrastructure. Its international airport serves most major international destinations as well as the region's many tropical beach resorts with direct flights. There is also a frequent 45-minute air shuttle service to Singapore.

Keynote Speakers

Richard Ebstein (National University of Singapore), Robert Sugden (University of East Anglia), Zhang Junsen (Chinese University of Hong Kong)
