What criteria are used to decide on the award?

When deciding on awarding the scholarships, a range of criteria are used including academic achievement to date, quality of essay, evidence of capacity to conduct and complete the MBA programme and relevant professional experience. Please note that only complete applications will be considered.

The scholarships are awarded by a Nottingham University Business School Scholarship and Bursary Committee, which typically includes the school's Director of MBA Programmes, named MBA Course Directors (or their nominee) and other senior Business School faculty.

Please note that all scholarship and bursary winners' names will be published on the Nottingham University Business School's website.
