

Travel, accommodation and venue information for conference delegates

Travel

Information about how to get to Keswick can be found at:

<http://www.keswick.org/directions.asp>

The nearest rail station is at Penrith.

For train times and tickets:

www.thetrainline.com

The average cost of a taxi from Penrith station to the centre of Keswick is £35 (minus tip).

Information on bus services between Penrith and Keswick can be found here

Keswick

A downloadable town map of Keswick is available here

Where to stay

Information about Keswick and local hotels and B&Bs can be found at:

<http://www.keswick.org/>

The conference venue

The conference is being held at:

Crosthwaite Conference Centre (Keswick School)

Church Lane

Keswick

CA12 5DG

(shown on a map here)

The Centre has ample car-parking and is a short walk from the centre of Keswick. It is adjacent to St Kentigern's Church, where Southey and members of his extended family are buried. More information about the Conference Centre can be found here.

Conference dinner

This will be held at Morrels restaurant, for more information about the venue see:

www.morreles.co.uk

Optional visit to Greta Hall

For information about Greta Hall, the home of Southey, Coleridge and their families see:

www.gretahall.net