

CSSGJ Seminar Series - Spring Semester 2011/12

Jan 23

CSSGJ Engagements Series

Dr Sara Motta, University of Nottingham

Teaching Global and Social Justice as Transgressive Spaces of Possibility.

Jan 30

Dr Alexandre Christoyannopoulos, Loughborough University

The Golden Rule on the Green Stick: Leo Tolstoy's Postsecular International Thought.

Feb 6

Vera Wegman, Tent City, Occupy London

The occupy movement: Reclaiming public spaces to think about and practise alternative.

Feb 13

Dr Rhiannon Firth and Dr Andrew Robinson, University of Nottingham

For the Past Yet to Come: Utopian Conceptions of Time and Becoming.

Feb 20

Professor Galip Yalman, Centre for European Studies, Middle East Technical University, Ankara, Turkey

State Debate in Turkey Revisited: How to make sense of the Political Islam-Neoliberal Hegemony Nexus.

Feb 27

Professor Bridget Anderson, COMPAS, University of Oxford

TBC

Mar 5

Kerem Nisancioglu, University of Sussex

Rethinking Ottoman Decline: Uneven and Combined Development and the Contradictions of Capitalist Subsumption.

Mar 12

Prof. Norma Lucia Bermudez, Centro de Estudios de Genero, Mujer y Sociedad de la Universidad del Valle, Cali, Colombia – Systemisation of the experience of the Political School of 'Mujeres Pazificas'- an experience of feminist and non-violent popular education.

Mar 19

CSSGJ PhD Panel, Maria Urbina Montana, Elif Uzgoren, Ertan Erol,

Debating Capitalist expansion, neo-liberal restructuring and alternatives within peripheral contexts.

Mar 26

Gerardo Otero

'Empowerment Theory: zapatismo, autonomy, and the state in Mexico'.

All Seminars take place between 4pm and 5.30pm Mondays in the Council Room (A21) Trent Building

