

Conference Volume 2005

The Economic Journal Conference Volume is published once a year. The current editors are Rachel Griffith and Carlo Perroni.

Papers are only eligible for consideration for publication if they have been accepted and presented at the Conference in that year. Turn around times are very quick for the Conference Volume with final decisions made by September at the latest. Many decisions are made much more quickly than that.

Submissions can be made electronically at:

<http://gemini.econ.umd.edu/ejconf>

The deadline for submission is Monday January 24 2005.

Authors will receive confirmation of their submission. Should you have any difficulties with the system or if you do not have access to the Internet, please contact:
