Faculty of Engineering
International Undergraduate Scholarships for 2013 entry

If you are an international student starting an undergraduate honours degree programme within the Faculty of Engineering in 2013, and meet the eligibility criteria outlined here, you will be awarded a 15% fee reduction in your first year of study.

In order to qualify for the scholarship, you will need to have applied through UCAS and made The University of Nottingham your first (firm) choice in the UCAS application process.

If you receive the award in your first year (2013), you will also be awarded £1,000 in your 2nd, 3rd and 4th years. This is conditional upon you passing the previous year with an overall average of 70% or above, and having satisfactory attendance during the previous year as determined by the head of department.

The scholarship will be paid automatically, you do not need to apply.

Notes on eligibility

- Only available to students who make The University of Nottingham their first (firm) choice at the appropriate time within the UCAS application process.

- Students registering on degree programmes jointly offered by Faculties outside Engineering are not eligible.

- Only students who commence their studies in the Faculty of Engineering (UK) in 2013 are eligible for the scholarship
  - students deferring their entry to the Faculty of Engineering to 2014 will be eligible for the 2014 entry scholarship (terms may be different from those in 2013)
  - students progressing from Ningbo or Malaysia campuses to commence their studies in the UK are not eligible
