

AHRC PhD Studentship

School of Geography

University of Nottingham

The School of Geography at the University of Nottingham invites expressions of interest for an AHRC doctoral studentship commencing September 2012. The deadline for applications to the School is 22 February 2012. Application forms are available through the University's Graduate School website here

All applicants must fulfill relevant AHRC eligibility criteria. Studentships are available only to applicants from the UK and the EU. Potential applicants should contact Mike Heffernan Mike.Heffernan@nottingham.ac.uk, Steve Legg Steve.Legg@nottingham.ac.uk, or the Postgraduate Administrator Andrea Payne, Andrea.Payne@nottingham.ac.uk on 0115 9515575 in the School of Geography with a CV, indicating their likely area of research interest. Candidates should hold or be undertaking a relevant Masters degree, although equivalent professional experience may be considered appropriate.

Details of research in the School are available on the website at www.nottingham.ac.uk/geography/research/index.aspx

In the School of Geography, the Cultural and Historical Geography Research Group has particular research strengths in:

- Landscape and Culture
- Histories of Geographical Knowledge
- Environmental History
- Cultural Geography and the Visual Arts
- Colonial and Post-Colonial Geographies
- Historical Geographies of Disease and Health
- Geographies of Performance

We welcome enquiries in all of these areas, and will be happy to discuss the detail of research proposals with applicants.
