

The European Convention on Human Rights: Current Issues

Friday 14th November 2008

University of Nottingham Great Hall, Trent Building

- Terrorism and the European Convention on Human Rights, Egbert Myjer, Judge of the European Court of Human Rights
- The Behrami Case: Questions of Jurisdiction and Attribution for UN Action in Kosovo, Marko Milanovic, University of Cambridge and formerly Associate, Belgrade Centre for Human Rights
- Islam and the European Convention: The Refah and Sahin cases, Professor Dominic McGoldrick, University of Liverpool
- 'Russian Cases before the European Court of Human Rights', Sergei Golubok, Lawyer, European Court of Human Rights Registry
- The European Court of Human Rights' Approach to Overruling its Own Precedents, Professor Alastair Mowbray, University of Nottingham.

Sponsored by

COUNCIL OF EUROPE
CONSEIL DE L'EUROPE

Conference Fees

Legal Practitioners: £100

Academics: £30

Students/NGOs: £10

(Lunch and refreshments included)

For further information and registration details:

[www.nottingham.ac.uk/law/hrlc/
EHRLUnit](http://www.nottingham.ac.uk/law/hrlc/EHRLUnit)

or contact Miss Kobie Neita — kobie.neita@nottingham.ac.uk,
+44 (0)115 84 66309