
International Leadership Conference Managing Global Universities

The University of Nottingham Ningbo, China

An intensive one week programme for senior managers and leaders from higher education institutions from across the world.

Venue: The University of Nottingham Ningbo, China (near Shanghai)

Date: Monday 8 November to Friday 12 November 2010

Cost: 2,000 GBP excluding flights

Book your place now:

www.nottingham.ac.uk/managingglobaluniversities

During the week-long programme a selection of the following will be covered in lecture, workshop and seminar sessions:

- ✓ Developing university strategy
- ✓ Leadership in an international context
- ✓ Commercialising research
- ✓ Assessing quality, ratings and rankings
- ✓ Developing international partnership
- ✓ Managing global governance
- ✓ Effective financial management
- ✓ Development and fundraising
- ✓ Different approaches to internationalisation

The conference will take place at The University of Nottingham's campus in Ningbo, China, an extremely successful research-led UK university with an excellent reputation for global leadership and management.

Conference language is English.

Ningbo City, China

For further details or to book your place, please visit

www.nottingham.ac.uk/managingglobaluniversities