If you need somewhere to work or study as a group you can book a room in your library.

You can book group study rooms through the library catalogue UNLOC.

Log in using your library number and PIN. You can find this on your University Card. The PIN is the last 4 digits of this number unless you’ve changed it.

Click on the Rooms link.

Click Availability for Group study rooms. This displays all rooms in our libraries.

Click booking for the room you want. Select the date you want using the calendar function, and then add the times. Click Go.

Check your booking details and click Go again to confirm.
