

Challenges to Surveillance: Interdisciplinary Perspectives

Research Workshop

Tuesday, 2 December, 2014, 9:30-12:20

Trent Building (University Park), Room A35

Programme

9:30	Introduction
9:40	Anglo-Turkish Reconnaissance Activities during World War II Egemen Bezci History Department, University of Nottingham
10:10	Big Data: Observations about Observing and Being Observed via Records Matt Voigts Horizon Centre for Doctoral Training, University of Nottingham
10:40	The Representation of the Concept of Surveillance in News Discourse Viola Wiegand Centre for Research in Applied Linguistics, School of English, University of Nottingham
11:10	Mapping Corporate Surveillance in Brazilian Internet: Privacy and Transparency in Google and Facebook Vitor Blotta School of Communications and Arts, University of Sao Paulo; Human Rights Law Centre, University of Nottingham
11:40	Design and Regulation: The Role of Law in Human Computer Interaction Lachlan Urquhart School of Computer Science, University of Nottingham
12:10 - 12:20	Final discussion

No prior registration required