

International Consortium
for the Study of Post-Conflict
Reconstruction and Reconciliation

The University of Nottingham

School of Cultures, Languages
and Area Studies

BATTLEFIELD ARCHAEOLOGIES
Scenes of Reconstruction

International Colloquium
6-7 December 2013

International Consortium
for the Study of Post-Conflict
Reconstruction and Reconciliation

The Coveney Library
Lincoln Hall

Friday 6 December Venue: The Coveney Library, Lincoln Hall

- 10.30-10.45 Introduction
The International Consortium for the Study of Post-Conflict Reconstruction and Reconciliation
Bernard McGuirk and Gareth Stockey
(University of Nottingham)

Chair Gareth Stockey (University of Nottingham)
- 10.45-11.30 On the Archaeology of Violence in an Urban Landscape
Gabriel Moshenka (University College University of London)
- 11.30-12.15 Stalag Luft III and the Great Escape
Iain Banks (University of Glasgow)
- 12.15-13.00 Battlefield Reenactments
Deirdre O'Sullivan (University of Leicester)
- 13.00 LUNCH

Chair Pablo Alonso González (University of Cambridge)
- 14.15-15.00 On the Destruction of Cultural and Community Property
Sam Hardy (University College University of London)
- 15.00-15.45 Tifariti and the Archaeology of Conflict in Africa's Last Colony
Salvatore Garfi (University of East Anglia)
- 15.45-16.15 Break

Chair Rui Gonçalves Miranda (University of Nottingham)
- 16.15-17.00 The Valley of the Fallen: the (N)ever Changing Face of Franco's Monument
Gareth Stockey (University of Nottingham)
- 17.00-17.45 Desperately seeking Federico: where is García Lorca?
A Preliminary Archaeological Investigation
Alberto Martí (University of Nottingham)
- 17.45-18.30 Past to Present: the Poet Li Ho Finds an Arrow on the Battlefield
Tomás Albaladejo (Universidad Autónoma de Madrid)
- 19.00 Drinks
- 19.30 DINNER

Saturday 7 December Venue: The Coveney Library, Lincoln Hall

- Chair Mike Seear (Nordic Crisis Management;
Kenyon International Emergency Services)
- 10.00-10.45 Beaten Ground and Blasted Rock: The Physical Remains of the Falklands War as Cultural Heritage
Tony Pollard (University of Glasgow)
- 10.45-11.30 Reflections on Chemical Warfare: from the Front Line
Mo Ashtari (former Red Cross, Iran)
- 11.30-12.15 Improvised Explosive Devices Activity
and the Failure of Prevention in Iraq
Martin Underwood (Director Tonanti Ltd;
ex-Ammunition Technical Officer, British Army)
- 12.15-13.00 Women's stories of the 1982 Falklands War
Helen Parr (University of Keele)
- 13.00 LUNCH
- Chair Diego García Quiroga (ex-Commander Argentine Navy)
- 14.15-15.00 Where does the Battlefield End? Geographical vs Psychological:
do Archives Aggravate or Calm?
William Spencer (National Archives, Kew, London)
- 15.00-15.45 Reflections of a Falklands Veteran
Kevin Harris (Glasgow: ex-45 Commando)
- 15.45-16.30 The Combat Veteran's Essential Confrontation with Trauma's Reality
Mike Seear (Nordic Crisis Management;
Kenyon International Emergency Services)
- 16.30-16.45 Break
- Chair Bernard McGuirk (University of Nottingham)
- 16.45-17.30 Media Memory, Political Memory:
on the Archaeology of Knowledge... Again
Lucrecia Escudero Chauvel (Université de Lille)
- 17.30-18.15 Readings from Another Front: Narrating an Argentine "process"
Diego García Quiroga (ex-Commander Argentine Navy)
- 18.15-19.00 Round Table Chairs Bernard McGuirk Mike Seear Gareth Stockey
- 19.30 COLLOQUIUM DINNER

International Consortium
for the Study of
Post-Conflict reconstruction and Reconciliation

Consortium Administrator: Alexandra Campos
Consortium Director: Bernard McGuirk
Colloquium Consultants: Mike Seear and Gareth Stockey
Administrative and Technical Support: Rui Miranda
Event Management: Alexandra Campos and Ricardo Rato