The Leverhulme Centre for Research on Globalisation and Economic Policy

Postgraduate Conference

11th April, 2005

The Leverhulme Centre for Research on Globalisation and Economic Policy (GEP), University of Nottingham, Nottingham, United Kingdom, is hosting its 4th Annual GEP Postgraduate Conference in 2005.

Call for Papers

The fourth GEP Postgraduate Conference will take place on 11th April, 2005 at the University of Nottingham. The Conference is intended to provide a forum for the dissemination of student research relating to issues of Globalisation and Economic Policy from both theoretical and empirical perspectives. These areas include Foreign Direct Investment, Trade, Productivity, Migration and Labour Market Adjustment.

The objective of the Conference is to bring together a number of PhD students to discuss their own research ideas with established researchers in a relaxed and open atmosphere. The Conference is open to graduate students engaged in the preparation of a doctoral dissertation or approaching this stage. Speakers will be selected on the basis of submitted abstracts.

Finance:
The Leverhulme Centre for Research on Globalisation and Economic Policy will cover the cost of local overnight accommodation in Nottingham for speakers.

Application:
Applicants must submit a CV, one letter of support from the PhD supervisor (to be submitted either by the applicant or directly from the supervisor) and a detailed abstract, providing clearly the motivation for the work, the relationship to the literature, the method used and the expected results. Those who are invited to present a paper are expected to deliver a complete paper before the Conference and in time for distribution among the participants. Submissions by e-mail are requested.

Applications should be sent by e-mail to:
Sara Maioli: sara.maioli@nottingham.ac.uk

Deadline for submission is 31st January, 2005.
