Conference Announcement and Call for Papers
The 7th Annual GEP Postgraduate Conference 2008

Sponsored by
Leverhulme Centre for Research on Globalisation and Economic Policy (GEP)
University of Nottingham, United Kingdom

10th and 11th April, 2008

Objectives

The Sixth GEP Postgraduate Conference will take place on 10th and 11th April 2008 at the University of Nottingham. The Conference is intended to provide a forum for the dissemination of student research relating to issues of Globalisation and Economic Policy from both theoretical and empirical perspectives. These areas include Foreign Direct Investment, Trade, Productivity, Economics of the MNEs, Migration and Labour Market Adjustment.

The objective of the Conference is to bring together a number of PhD students to discuss their own research ideas with established researchers in a relaxed and open atmosphere. The Conference is open to graduate students engaged in the preparation of a doctoral dissertation or approaching this stage. Speakers will be selected on the basis of submitted abstracts. There will also be a poster session, so please indicate at the time of submission if you would prefer to submit a paper or a poster.

Submission

Applicants must submit a CV, one letter of support from their PhD supervisor (sent separately by email) and a detailed abstract, providing clearly the motivation for the work, the relationship to the literature, the method used and the expected results. Those who are invited to present a paper or a poster are expected to deliver a complete paper before the Conference and in time for distribution among the participants. Applications must be sent by e-mail to:

Dr Liza Jabbour liza.jabbour@nottingham.ac.uk

Deadline for submission is 21st January 2008.
Keynote speaker

Professor Chris Milner, Professor of International Economics, University of Nottingham
