Meet your "Buddy"

Venue to be confirmed
An informal event run by the Psychology Society to give you a chance to meet your buddy and other Psychology students.

Thursday 24th September 2009

AM.: For the introduction to the C81MPR practical module, you will be shown how to take your photograph on the computers which will be used in your Psychology student file. Dr Stirk will explain a little about the practical classes and the timetabling of them. For this morning session you will have been split into groups, details of the groups will be in the first year practical handout, given to you by your tutor when you meet with them.

PM.: You will be given an introduction to the library facilities and to the student portal (see the C81MPR practical handout, given to you by your tutor, for details)

Module Registration

You should write ALL your chosen modules (i.e. not just your Psychology modules) on your "Module Entry Form" which you will receive from your tutor when you register with them on Monday 21st September.
