Accessible Minibus Service

Safety Regulations

- It is the passenger’s responsibility to comply with all current University and Minibus safety procedures
- It is the passenger’s responsibility to ensure that all the appropriate restraints, ie clamps and belts, are in place while this vehicle is in motion
- The Driver is available to assist upon request
- Passengers should not distract the Driver while the vehicle is in motion
- Food, drink, smoking and vaping are NOT permitted on this minibus
- The University of Nottingham will not assume liability for passengers who do not comply with current minibus safety procedures

Revised: 09 2017