Nottsbus Connect

Connecting your community

We know that your local bus services are important to you. Nottinghamshire County Council is committed to keeping you moving and has been working hard on delivering these services in a more efficient and effective way.

These improvements ensure local transport remains convenient, efficient and affordable.

- Feeder routes connecting with other bus services.
- County Council fleet vehicles provide some local services making more efficient use of our resources.

The Nottsbus Connect bus services provide a vital service for many people who cannot access the commercial bus network, providing access to training, employment, health, shopping and leisure facilities in the local area.
