Based in one of the UK’s leading universities, the School of Sociology and Social Policy is a vibrant, diverse and exciting place to study.

High-quality research underpins our teaching, with more than three-quarters of publications by our academic staff rated as world-leading or internationally excellent in the latest Research Excellence Framework. When studying with us, you can be sure that you’ll gain essential, real-world skills and knowledge that will help you to pursue your career ambitions.

We have been awarded Q-Step Affiliate status, which recognises the strength in quantitative methods within our teaching and underlines our commitment to enhancing our students’ career prospects.

The Q-Step programme is a national initiative designed to help develop the quantitative skills of social science students. These skills are needed to evaluate evidence, analyse data, and design and commission research.

Dedicated to broadening students’ horizons, we offer a number of study abroad opportunities which can enhance your personal development and strengthen your CV when it comes to entering the competitive job market.

By choosing to study with us, you can be sure of a fulfilling and inspirational student experience in a friendly and dynamic learning environment.

Professor Ian Shaw
Head of the School of Sociology and Social Policy

Find out where a School of Sociology and Social Policy degree could take you at nottingham.ac.uk/sociology
Studying sociology, criminology, social work and social policy at Nottingham

With so much emphasis in contemporary politics on social justice, welfare reforms, austerity measures, immigration, crime, community and identity, there has never been a better time to learn how we can all make a difference in society.

Flexible study
We offer a wide range of optional modules, including choices from other disciplines, and a flexible system which allows you to tailor your degree to your interests and career aspirations. Studying at Nottingham enables you to develop a global perspective on your chosen subject and there are also opportunities to study abroad at partner institutions in locations such as Australia, Canada and China. As an undergraduate student, you will be assigned a personal tutor who will help guide your studies during your time at Nottingham.

High-quality teaching
We are a friendly and supportive school, committed to excellence in teaching. The quality of our teaching provision has been recognised in recent years by the achievement of several student-nominated Lord Dearing awards and nominations for the Students’ Union Staff Oscars.

Number 1 for social work in the UK

78% of our research has been rated world-leading or internationally excellent

At a glance

- Tailor your course to your interests and career aspirations through our wide range of modules, including options from other disciplines
- Develop a global perspective on your chosen subject by studying abroad in locations such as Australia, Canada and China
- Study in a friendly and supportive school, benefiting from the guidance of academic experts who have won awards for the quality of their teaching

Sociology is a broad subject concerned with understanding contemporary societies. It explores how society is organised and seeks to understand the experience of diverse individuals and groups.

Criminology is the study of crime, its definitions, causes and consequences. It seeks to understand the functioning of the criminal justice system, our response to crime and the treatment of both victims and those defined as criminals.

Social work encompasses a diverse range of topics including elements of sociology, social policy, law and human development, as well as practical skills. It involves both academic study and work placements, and results in a professional qualification.

Social policy is concerned with welfare and wellbeing. It explores how the state responds to social problems such as poverty, homelessness, domestic violence and unemployment.

Our courses

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Degree title</th>
<th>UCAS code</th>
<th>Duration</th>
<th>A levels</th>
<th>IB</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Single honours</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>BA Sociology</td>
<td>L300</td>
<td>3 years</td>
<td>ABB^</td>
<td>32</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>BA Criminology</td>
<td>L316</td>
<td>3 years</td>
<td>ABB^</td>
<td>32</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>BA Social Work</td>
<td>L509</td>
<td>3 years</td>
<td>ABB^^</td>
<td>32</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Joint honours</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>BA Sociology and Social Policy</td>
<td>LL34</td>
<td>3 years</td>
<td>ABB^</td>
<td>32</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>BA Criminology and Sociology</td>
<td>1L22</td>
<td>3 years</td>
<td>ABB^</td>
<td>32</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>BA Criminology and Social Policy</td>
<td>8L67</td>
<td>3 years</td>
<td>ABB^</td>
<td>32</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

* Excluding general studies.
^ Excluding general studies; plus GCSE English and maths, 4 (C) or above.

English language requirements
IELTS 7.0 (no less than 6.0 in any element). For more information and a list of the alternative English language requirements we accept, please see nottingham.ac.uk/go/alternativerequirements

Developing your academic English and study skills
The Centre for English Language Education (CELE) offers you the opportunity to develop your English language skills at one of the world's top universities. Accredited by the British Council for the teaching of English, CELE provides high-quality teaching, facilities and support. Our presessional courses take your English language and academic skills to the level you need to progress to undergraduate study without taking IELTS again. Find out more at nottingham.ac.uk/cele

For more information about our courses visit nottingham.ac.uk/ugstudy/sociology
BA Sociology

Studying sociology is a transformative experience. It makes us question and explore the realities of the world around us; the taken-for-granted ‘facts’ about how the social world is organised.

As sociologists, we develop a keen sociological imagination with which to think reflexively and critically about almost everything. Examples include why we might dress our female children in pink, to what is missing from the Modern Slavery Bill, to the implications of climate change and global migration.

Through studying sociology you will become competent at analysing societies, social change, relationships and institutions like family and the workplace. You will also become familiar with global phenomena like transnationalism, religion and popular culture.

You will consider questions such as:
- How are societies created, reproduced and sustained over time?
- How do factors like class, gender, ethnicity and sexuality impact upon people’s everyday lives and access to the world’s resources?
- What social rules and processes bind and separate people not only as individuals, but as members of associations, groups and institutions, both in everyday encounters and in the global social context?

Study abroad
You can apply to spend a semester of your third year abroad, studying similar modules to your counterparts back in Nottingham but at institutions around the world. Find out more at nottingham.ac.uk/sociology/study-abroad

Quantitative Methods pathway
You can choose to take a Quantitative Methods pathway as part of this course, graduating with a BA Sociology (Quantitative Methods) degree. This is part of our Q-Step Affiliate programme, a national initiative to provide graduates with the skills employers are looking for. Find out more at nottingham.ac.uk/q-step

"Studying sociology has captured my imagination and allowed me to develop new interest areas to pursue in later study and life. It is both challenging and rewarding, with the staff maintaining my interest, expanding my horizons and supporting me the whole way.
Tilly Stone, BA Sociology"

For more detailed course content visit nottingham.ac.uk/ugstudy/sociology
BA Sociology and Social Policy

Social policy deals with interventions, or the ways in which people deliberately try to bring about social change. These interventions often try to solve wicked problems – so called because they have complex interdependencies and are resistant to resolution.

Trying to solve one problem can often give rise to others. Examples are areas such as climate change, inequalities, pandemic planning, social justice and welfare.

Social policies do not always succeed – they can promote social justice, but can also exacerbate social problems and sometimes even cause them. How we judge these policies is ultimately about political and moral debates. Social policy is therefore very dynamic and often studied in an interdisciplinary manner.

This course will enable you to understand the causes of social problems, both globally and nationally, and what can be done about them. It brings sociological analysis to bear on the wicked problems with which social policy concerns itself and upon other issues that fundamentally affect the welfare of society and individuals. You will be able to develop your knowledge of issues that interest you through optional modules and your dissertation.

Study abroad
You can apply to spend a semester of your third year abroad, studying similar modules to your counterparts back in Nottingham but at institutions around the world. Find out more at nottingham.ac.uk/sociology/study-abroad

“
My favourite thing about studying sociology at the University of Nottingham is the amount of choice you have in shaping your degree. The range of optional modules is great and changes from year to year, meaning you can stick with what you enjoy or try something new.

Nicola Sharp, BA Sociology

"
BA Criminology

Criminology is concerned not just with crime, how it is defined, experienced and explained, but also with the different ways in which individuals and societies respond to it. It is an interdisciplinary area of study that draws on insights from sociology, social policy, law and the social sciences more generally.

Criminologists adopt different theoretical perspectives and use a range of research methods to increase our understanding of crime and criminal justice.

They are interested in:
- offenders (and how they are defined)
- victims of crime
- social contexts in which crime and victimisation take place

There is also a focus on ways of controlling crime – whether that is through changing social policies to do with housing, education and welfare, or through the work of specialist institutions like the police, probation and prison services.

The kinds of questions criminologists ask, and set out to answer, include:
- How and why do certain kinds of behaviour come to be defined as crime?
- What is the impact of social change – globalisation, financial crises, increasing social diversity and growing individualism – on crime and how we respond to it?
- How do patterns of crime and victimisation relate to social divisions concerning age, gender, ethnicity, sexuality, (dis)ability, wealth and income?
- What is the purpose of institutions like the police and prisons?
- How can punishment be justified?

As part of your degree you will also have the opportunity to study a variety of modules related to sociology and social policy, which will enable you to see crime, its causes and responses to it in its wider social and global context.

Study abroad
You can apply to spend a semester of your third year abroad, studying similar modules to your counterparts back in Nottingham but at institutions around the world. Find out more at nottingham.ac.uk/sociology/study-abroad

For more detailed course content visit nottingham.ac.uk/ugstudy/sociology

Typical modules

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year one</th>
<th>Year two</th>
<th>Year three</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Core</td>
<td>Core</td>
<td>Core</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Exploring Criminology</td>
<td>Theories of Crime, Justice and Society in the 21st Century</td>
<td>Plus four optional modules (see page 15) which could include one from another school.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Investigating Social Worlds</td>
<td>Understanding Contemporary Society</td>
<td>Plus four optional modules (see page 15) which could include one from another school.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Understanding Contemporary Society</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Core</td>
<td>Plus two introductory modules (see page 14) which could include one from another school.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Modules may change, for example due to curriculum developments. The above list is a sample of typical modules that we offer, not a definitive list. The most up to date information can be found on our website at nottingham.ac.uk/ugstudy
BA Criminology and Sociology | Social Policy

At Nottingham, you can combine the study of criminology with either sociology or social policy.

Criminologists adopt different theoretical perspectives and use a range of research methods to increase our understanding of crime and criminal justice. They are interested in:
- offenders (and how they are defined)
- victims of crime
- social contexts in which crime and victimisation take place

There is also a focus on ways of controlling crime – whether that is through changing social policies to do with housing, education and welfare, or through the work of specialist institutions like the police, probation and prison services.

Study abroad
You can apply to spend a semester of your third year abroad, studying similar modules to your counterparts back in Nottingham but at institutions around the world. Find out more at nottingham.ac.uk/sociology/study-abroad

Studying criminology with sociology or social policy will enable you to see crime, its causes and responses to it in their wider social and global context. While sociology is concerned with understanding social relationships and institutions like families, communities and workplaces which provide the setting for crime and crime control, social policy focuses on ways of intervening in wicked problems – poverty, inequality and discrimination – that may lead to offending.

Whichever subject combination you choose, you can be certain that a joint honours programme will broaden and deepen your understanding of crime as a social problem, and how we can respond to it most effectively.

For more detailed course content visit nottingham.ac.uk/ugstudy/sociology

"Whether it’s the friendly and knowledgeable staff, the contact hours or the independent learning, this course has enlightened me. It has given me new platforms to discover and explore the intricacies of the social world."

Kelly Waldorf, BA Criminology and Sociology

Typical modules for BA Criminology and Sociology

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year one</th>
<th>Year two</th>
<th>Year three</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Core</td>
<td>Core</td>
<td>Core</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Exploring Criminology</td>
<td>Research Design and Practice</td>
<td>Plus four optional modules (see page 15) which could include one from another school.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Investigating Social Worlds</td>
<td>Theories of Crime, Justice and Society in the 21st Century</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Understanding Contemporary Society</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Plus two introductory modules (see page 14) which could include one from another school.</td>
<td>Plus three optional modules (see page 15) which could include one from another school.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Typical modules for BA Criminology and Social Policy

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year one</th>
<th>Year two</th>
<th>Year three</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Core</td>
<td>Core</td>
<td>Core</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Exploring Criminology</td>
<td>Political Theory and Social Policy</td>
<td>Plus four optional modules (see page 15) which could include one from another school.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Investigating Social Worlds</td>
<td>Research Design and Practice</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Policy and Social Justice</td>
<td>Theories of Crime, Justice and Society in the 21st Century</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Understanding Contemporary Society</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Plus an introductory module (see page 14) which could be from another school.</td>
<td>Plus three optional modules (see page 15) which could include one from another school.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Modules may change, for example due to curriculum developments. The above lists are samples of typical modules that we offer, not definitive lists. The most up to date information can be found on our website at nottingham.ac.uk/ugstudy

Our courses
Modules

Introductory
Designed to outline key theoretical approaches and concepts, these modules introduce you to different topics through a series of case studies. Introductory modules anticipated to be available to students on our undergraduate courses (except BA Social Work) in 2018/19 include the following.

Year one
- The Criminal Justice System: Function, Process and Policy
- Culture, Identity and Deviance
- Exploring Criminology
- Global Studies and Human Rights
- Policy and Social Justice
- Society, Health and Environment

Optional
We offer a wide variety of optional modules in criminology, quantitative research methods, social policy, and sociology, which provide an opportunity to focus on an area of study that particularly interests you. Optional modules anticipated to be available to students on our undergraduate courses (except BA Social Work) in 2018/19 include the following.

Year two
- Applied Ethics and Society
- Belief, Spirituality and Religion
- The Body, The Self and Others
- Citizenship: Resistance and Compliance
- Chinese Society and Culture: Beyond the Headlines
- Dynamics of International Social Policy
- Ethnicity, ‘Race’ and Everyday Life
- Families and Social Divisions
- Health: Theory, Policy and Practice
- History of British Social Policy
- Human and Child Rights
- Intermediate Quantitative Methods for Social Science
- Introduction to Cultural Theory
- Knowledge, Experts and Society
- Media and Popular Culture
- Police, Policing and the Police
- Political Theory and Social Policy
- Prisons and Society
- Social Research and Community Engagement
- Sociology of Health, Illness and the Body
- Understanding Domestic Violence and Abuse
- Youth Crime and Justice

Year three
- Analysing Public Policy
- Another Country: Crime and Crime Control in South Africa
- Capitalism and Social Justice: Moral Economies of Inequality
- Climate Change and Society
- Contemporary Developments in Welfare Policy
- Education and Society
- Exploring Social and Cultural Life Through Films
- Gender and Media
- Gender, the Family and Social Policy
- Governance and Policy in Africa and Asia in International Comparative Context
- Immigration, Borders and Crime
- Migration and Transnationalism
- Nationalisms: The Politics of Belonging and Exclusion
- Rehabilitation, Risk and Desistance
- Sex Crime
- Sociological Perspectives on Medicine: The Case of Psychiatry
- The Sociology of Work and Employment
- Technology, Material Culture and Social Change
- Terrorism and Extremism in the United Kingdom
- Tourism, Identity and Risk
- Violence

Modules may change, for example due to curriculum developments. The above list is a sample of typical modules that we offer, not a definitive list. The most up to date information can be found on our website at nottingham.ac.uk/ugstudy.

For more detailed course content visit nottingham.ac.uk/ugstudy/sociology
BA Social Work

Social work is concerned with the relationships between individuals, families and society. As such, social workers seek to enable people to negotiate complex and sometimes painful transitions and decisions in their lives.

As an academic discipline, our primary mission is to ensure that students are professionally capable of carrying out such tasks.

This course enables successful graduates to register as qualified social workers. As a result, it has been constructed to ensure that all the mandatory elements of a social work qualifying course are met. This includes assessment, communication skills, human growth and development, interprofessional working, law, and planning intervention and review.

More generally, our undergraduate programme ensures that you will be able to demonstrate the capacity for critical thinking and creative action in relation to the complex problems of human life. In this respect, the connection between social work and social policy is critical.

You’ll take a mixture of academic modules that are specific to the development of social work, alongside others that focus on social policy. In addition, in years two and three, you’ll complete assessed placements in social work settings.

Overall, the course seeks to engage with a number of critical issues in the delivery of social work within the context of the current state of welfare.

Please note that study abroad opportunities are not available on this course due to the time required on placement.

Typical modules

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year one</th>
<th>Year two</th>
<th>Year three</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Core</td>
<td>Core</td>
<td>Core</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Communication Skills for Practice</td>
<td>From Theory to Practice</td>
<td>Critical Perspectives on Social Work</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Introduction to Social Work</td>
<td>Human Growth and Development Across the Life Course</td>
<td>Social Work Research</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Investigating Social Worlds</td>
<td>Policy and Social Justice</td>
<td>Plus an 80-day placement.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Policy and Social Justice</td>
<td>Understanding Contemporary Society</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Understanding Contemporary Society</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Modules may change, for example due to curriculum developments. The above list is a sample of typical modules that we offer, not a definitive list. The most up to date information can be found on our website at nottingham.ac.uk/ugstudy

Social work bursaries

During years two and three, you may be eligible to apply for one of a limited number of social work bursaries. The NHS Business Services Authority administers this bursary scheme, which is subject to review. For more information, visit nhsbsa.nhs.uk

Studying at the University of Nottingham has given me the skills and knowledge to develop as a reflective, evidence-based practitioner. The modules have all fitted together very well and have given me the confidence to continue and embrace learning throughout my social work career.

Bernadette Evans, BA Social Work

For more detailed course content visit nottingham.ac.uk/ugstudy/sociology
Engaging study, incredible results

You will encounter a wide variety of teaching methods at university and, as a student on one of our courses, you will be taught by lecturers who are experts in their field.

Teaching and support
Teaching is delivered through interactive weekly lectures and small group seminars. Some modules also include practical workshops and the dissertation module has masterclasses, conference days, and one-to-one supervision. Lectures are taken by 20–200 students (depending on whether they are core or optional modules), and seminar classes are limited to no more than 25 students throughout your studies. In the second and third years, personal tutorial groups are limited to just 12 students to reflect the increasing demands of study in these years.

For social work students, modules are delivered through lectures, seminars, workshops and work-based learning opportunities. We use a variety of teaching methods to help you develop the professional knowledge and practical skills required to become a qualified social worker, including the use of audio-visual technology, roleplay, and information communication technology.

During year one, you will shadow a social worker and observe their practice. In subsequent years, University-based learning during the first semester is followed by around three months of full-time work experience in a related setting. Class sizes vary between 30–60 students, with seminars held with 10–15 students at a time.

How will I study?

How do I apply?

All applications for an undergraduate place to study at the University of Nottingham, including applications by international students, must be made through UCAS.

Applications should be made online at ucas.com and candidates will be notified of decisions through UCAS using UCAS Track.

Your personal statement
This is the section of your UCAS form that tells us most about you, and you should make the best use of it. Be as specific and detailed as you can – we would like to see that you are a student who can work hard, be self-motivated and make the best possible use of the opportunities that our courses offer you. We would also like to hear about any skills you have gained through extracurricular activities.

Alternative qualifications
In this brochure you will find our A level entry requirements but we accept a much broader range of qualifications.

These include:
- Access to HE Diploma
- Advanced Diploma
- BTEC HND/HNC
- BTEC Extended Diploma
- Cambridge Pre-U
- International Baccalaureate
- Irish Leaving Certificate
- Scottish Advanced Highers
- Welsh Baccalaureate Advanced Diploma

This list is not exhaustive; we will consider applicants with other qualifications on an individual basis. Please contact us to discuss the suitability of your qualification.

Flexible admissions policy
We recognise that some educational and personal circumstances affect achievement. If we judge that you have experienced circumstances that have adversely affected your achievement, we will consider them when assessing your academic potential. Some courses may vary the offer as a result. For the most up-to-date information about our offers, please see the entry requirements section of our course pages on our online prospectus. For more information about this policy, please see nottingham.ac.uk/ugstudy/applying

Mature applicants
We encourage applications from mature applicants who have a significant gap in education. You should apply in the normal way through UCAS. More information for mature students can be found at nottingham.ac.uk/mature

International applicants
The University provides a range of information and advice for international applicants. If you are unable to attend an open day, we can meet you in your country at one of our overseas events or arrange an individual visit to the University. For further information please visit nottingham.ac.uk/go/international-applicants

Deferred entry
Applicants who wish to defer their entry by a year will not be at a disadvantage. Please tell us something about your plans for your gap year in your UCAS personal statement.

Equal opportunities policy
The University aims to create the conditions whereby students and staff are treated solely on the basis of their merits, abilities and potential, regardless of gender, race, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin, age, socio-economic background, disability, religious or political beliefs, trade union membership, family circumstances, sexual orientation or other irrelevant distinction.

For more information about studying with the School of Sociology and Social Policy visit nottingham.ac.uk/sociology/teaching-learning

Find out how to apply at nottingham.ac.uk/ugstudy/applying
World class for employability

In addition to the subject-specific knowledge that you will build throughout your chosen course, you will develop key transferable skills during your time at Nottingham.

These skills are highly sought-after by employers and include written and verbal communication, IT skills, statistical analysis, time management and motivation, critical evaluation and teamwork.

Our sociology and social policy graduates have been successful in securing a diverse range of occupations with roles in the public, private and voluntary sectors. These include housing, research, residential care, support work and charity fundraising, as well as business functions in marketing, advertising, human resources, recruitment, finance, property, broadcasting and journalism.

Most of our social work graduates obtain employment as qualified professionals in local authority children’s or adult services. Salaries for newly qualified social workers employed by local authorities range from £22,000 to £27,000, rising to £30,000 for those successfully completing their first year of assessed practice. Starting salaries in the independent sector will vary greatly depending on the post and employing organisation.

£20,938 was the average starting salary, with the highest being £31,627*

94% of first-degree graduates from the School of Sociology and Social Policy who were available for employment secured work or further study within six months of graduation*

Recent graduate destinations:
- BBC
- Ministry of Justice
- Stonewall
- Youth Movement for Reform Judaism and Zionism
- Derby City Council
- Framework Housing Association
- Lincolnshire County Council
- Nottingham City Council

Careers and Employability Service

Our Careers and Employability Service has a team dedicated to Faculty of Social Sciences students. They will be on hand to offer you specialist support and guidance throughout your degree and for life after you graduate.

Whether you need help writing a CV, preparing for an interview or exploring career ideas, you can book one-to-one appointments or come along to a workshop. Each term there is also an exciting events schedule, bringing you face-to-face with employers offering real-life insight into their professions.

The Nottingham Advantage Award

The award-winning Nottingham Advantage Award recognises and rewards your extracurricular activities. With a choice of over 200 modules, you can hone the key skills employers want. From developing your leadership skills and learning a language to public speaking and volunteering, you will leave university with demonstrable experience that sets you apart from other graduates. For further information, please visit nottingham.ac.uk/careers/advantage

Find out where Nottingham could take you and network with our graduates on LinkedIn.
Experience it in a world beyond ordinary

There’s so much for you to get involved in and explore at the University and around the city. Whether you’re interested in sports, learning a language or just having fun with friends alongside studying, you’ll be spoilt for choice.

Getting involved in your Students’ Union
University of Nottingham Students’ Union (UoNSU) is a brilliant, diverse community, and whether you are an undergraduate or postgraduate, first-year or final-year student, you are a part of it. With 300+ student-led groups, clubs and societies, hundreds of volunteering opportunities and support for every stage of your university journey, your Students’ Union offers something for everyone. Find out more: su.nottingham.ac.uk

Your support network
Throughout your university journey there will be numerous people on hand to support and advise you, including tutors and dedicated staff. We have Student Service Centres on all three of our UK campuses, which provide a range of support, information and specialist services. Find out more: nottingham.ac.uk/studentservices

Your new home from home
At Nottingham we offer a wide range of room types across the campuses in both catered and self-catered accommodation. From standard single rooms with shared bathrooms to large en-suite studios and flats, there’s something to suit every budget and personal choice. For current pricing and to review all accommodation options please visit nottingham.ac.uk/accommodation

Sport
The University of Nottingham is one of the UK’s leading universities for sport and is currently ranked 4th in the university sport rankings*. We have one of the biggest portfolios of sports facilities in the country including the brand new £40m David Ross Sports Village. We also have a rich heritage of supporting Olympic medallists and we have more than 70 student sports clubs to choose from. Find out more: nottingham.ac.uk/sport

*British Universities and Colleges Sport Standings, 2015-16.

Learning a language
The University’s Language Centre gives you the opportunity to study a language alongside your course. All languages are offered from beginners’ level with some going up to near native competency. There are nine languages to choose from: Modern Standard Arabic, Dutch, French, German, Italian, Japanese, Mandarin Chinese, Russian, and Spanish. Find out more: nottingham.ac.uk/language-centre

Exploring your new city
Nottingham city centre is around a 10-minute bus ride away from University Park Campus, so you’re always close to the action. There are plenty of music venues, from the world-famous Rock City to the Motorpoint Arena or one of the smaller gig venues for a more intimate live show. If you enjoy shopping, there are independent boutiques and vintage shops as well as high street names in our large shopping centres. Nottingham is also a hotspot for dining, with a great choice of cuisines on offer. Find out more: nottingham.ac.uk/nottinghamlife

Your opportunity to study abroad
We offer a range of study abroad opportunities with many students having the option to live and study in another country as part of their university career. Studying or working abroad is a fantastic opportunity to broaden your horizons, experience different cultures, and develop the key skills that employers are looking for. Find out more: nottingham.ac.uk/studywithus/studyabroad

Music
All student musicians at the University of Nottingham are encouraged to get involved with the vibrant musical life on campus. Find out more: nottingham.ac.uk/music/performance
For undergraduate enquiries contact:
Student Recruitment Enquiries Centre

nottingham.ac.uk/sociology

© University of Nottingham 2017. All rights reserved. Printed June 2017.

This brochure has been drafted in advance of the academic year to which it applies. Every effort has been made to ensure that the information contained in this brochure is accurate at the time of publishing, but changes (for example to course content) are likely to occur given the interval between publication and commencement of the course. It is therefore very important to check our website for any updates before you apply for the course by following nottingham.ac.uk/ugstudy. Where there is a difference between the contents of this brochure and our website, the contents of the website take precedence.