

PALA 2021

Conference Online

<https://palaconference.wordpress.com>

PALA 2021 will be held virtually online, hosted by the University of Nottingham. Registration is now open, and the conference will be held over three days from 7-9 July 2021. (The planned conference in Aix, France will now be held in 2022).

PALA 2021 is open for proposals for papers and posters on any aspect of poetics and linguistics that would be of interest to PALA members. PALA is an international academic association for those who work in stylistics, poetics, and associated fields of language and linguistics. Specific interests of PALA members include, for example, narratology, literariness, literary linguistics, stylistics and pedagogy, critical discourse analysis, gender and writing, literary translation studies, linguistics and philosophy, metaphor, cognition, cognitive poetics, metafiction, pragmatics, text linguistics, corpus stylistics, and other related areas.

|                             |               |
|-----------------------------|---------------|
| Dates:                      | 7-9 July 2021 |
| Paper proposals deadline:   | 15 April      |
| Posters proposals deadline: | 17 May        |
| Full delegate rate:         | £30           |
| Unwaged:                    | £20           |

E: pala@nottingham.ac.uk