

Study abroad opportunities 2018/19

International school exchange programme

Eligibility

Students study abroad for the full third-year of a four-year programme. Students take a full academic load at the partner institution and progress into their final year at Nottingham if they maintain a C average (GPA 2.00 or higher).

These four-year single and joint honours degrees include a compulsory year abroad:

- BA American and Canadian Literature, History and Culture with International Study
- BA American Studies and Latin American Studies
- BA American Studies and Latin American Studies (Beginners' Spanish)

These three-year joint honours degrees offer the opportunity to apply for international study at the end of year one.

- BA American Studies and English
- BA American Studies and History

Erasmus exchange programme

For students from the Department of American and Canadian Studies only

Application deadline

Friday 15 December 2017

Eligibility

Normally students solely wishing to participate in the Erasmus scheme study abroad in the second semester of year two as long as they can continue to meet degree requirements. However it is also possible to combine one semester in Europe with a semester in North America during the third-year abroad. Please email clasenglish-mobility@nottingham.ac.uk to request an application form for the Erasmus scheme
