Volunteering opportunity
An opportunity for alumni who identify as BME (Black and Minority Ethnic) to take part in a panel discussion on career development, speaking about their own experiences and being inspirational role models for our BME staff and students. The panel will comprise BME staff, students and alumni and will be chaired by a BME staff member, Nalayini Thambar, Director of Careers and Employability.

Who will suit this opportunity?
BME alumni willing to speak about and share their own experiences to help inform others in their careers. A chance to hear other BME alumni career stories, and network with students, staff and alumni.

Date, time and expected number of volunteering hours
Date: Thursday 17 October 2019
Time: 4.00pm-6.30pm. The event is expected to last for two hours and will be followed by 30 minutes informal networking (optional).
Location: Senate Chamber, Trent Building, University Park

The Role
In this role you’ll speak briefly about your own experiences (for around 3-4 minutes) and act as an inspirational role models for our BME staff and students. You’ll then be asked to join roundtable discussions on 3 focused questions.

Type of audience role will benefit
Although focused on BME staff and students and non-BME staff supporting/working with BME students, all UoN staff and students are invited to attend. The event will also be promoted to local schools and colleges.

What outcome/outputs are we seeking from this volunteering programme and how will success be measured?
This event is part of the People and Culture Events Programme for Black History Month 2019.
The University’s Institutional Equality Objectives include:
- To hold an Institutional Bronze Race Equality Chartermark by 2020.
- By 2020, to have action plans in place and being implemented at School/Faculty level in regard to improving the educational attainment of BME students.

Recruitment process
If you’re interested in taking part in this important event please complete an application form here by Friday 20th September.

Volunteer Expenses
