Volunteering opportunity
This flagship speaking opportunity invites those in the media/journalism sector (including magazine, broadcast, TV, social media, digital media) to talk about their career and progress since graduation, including information on their path to success and any tips or advice they may be able to provide.

This volunteer opportunity is aimed to inspire students to shape their future career. The speaker will be asked, depending on preference, to either give a 45-60 minute presentation or be part of a small panel of professionals where they get 10 minutes to introduce themselves and briefly talk about their role before having a Q&A with the attendees.

Who will suit this opportunity?
A diverse range of alumni covering multiple areas of the media sector (news/lifestyle/sport/music/features/travel etc.) who have either recently started out and can reflect on their transition from university to where they are now (eg. 5-10 years of experience) or are senior within their organisation and have significant experience within the sector. They must be based in the UK and can travel to Nottingham.

Date, time and expected number of volunteering hours
Date: Saturday 16th November 2019
Time: 9 am - 4 pm
Hours: 1 hour talk during the day followed by informal networking at the end of the event (up to 1 hour)

Recruitment Process
Please complete an application form by Monday 16th September and we will be in touch with you to discuss the opportunity further.
