

How does it work?

All business plan submissions will be externally assessed and some of the key points you should consider over the next few weeks are:

- Is the problem worth solving and likely to succeed?
- Do they know their target market with the appropriate marketing segments
- Is the sales & marketing strategy fit for purpose?
- Have they identified their competitors?
- Is it an innovative business model?
- Do the financials seem realistic?