

Chris Hayward – CV4

3 Feather Street, Nottingham, NG6 2RT

Mobile: 0374444444 Email: chris@chris.worldspeak

A research scientist with four years specialist experience in

Strong problem solving skills used in creative and innovative research projects in

Experienced in producing and interpreting complex scientific data

Education

2014 – Present PhD ... School of University of Nottingham

2010 - 2014 MSci ... School of ... University of Nottingham

First Class Honours Included Year in Industry with XYZ Technology Ltd

Scientific Skills and Experience

- Proficient user of a variety of specialised scientific packages including
- Developing programming ability using language
- Able to utilise experimental design skills to investigate complex scientific problems
- Experience of using analytical and evidence based research skills to produce innovative solutions

Industrial Project – Testing and implementation of data analytics processes and procedures

- Responsible for designing data analytics testing procedure
- Effectively liaised with R&D scientists to understand testing process requirements
- Produced draft protocols and procedures for initial implementation
- Presented project outcomes to senior company managers and directors

Project Management

- Successfully managed Year In Industry and PhD projects
- Experience of reviewing and revising project timescales and plans in consultation with project leaders
- Able to take responsibility for own workload and prioritise tasks in order to meet competing deadlines

Communication

- Able to produce effective written technical reports and project updates for managers and colleagues
- Effectively presented Year In Industry project and PhD research to a range of audiences including senior industrialists and academics

Teamwork

- Experience of working with Finance, Business Development and Technical colleagues in XYZ Technologies
- Able to work effectively with colleagues from industry and academic research groups

Retail and Leisure Industry Employment

Dates Customer Service Representative

- Experience of working in a busy call centre
- Able to deal calmly and efficiently with customer complaints

Dates Various Part time and Temporary Roles including Summer Camp Sports Coach

- Delivered summer football camp coaching sessions for 11- 14 year olds

Voluntary Work

Dates Nightline Volunteer and Team Leader

- Managed and led a team of 3 volunteers
- Delivered induction training for new volunteers
- Experience of providing telephone support to vulnerable adults

Achievements and Interests

- Football Coach, Level 1
- Member of CBQ Football team, Captain of First Team
- Travelled extensively throughout South America

References available on request