

The Association of Charity Vets

The Association of Charity Vets is delighted to announce its second conference to be held at the University of Nottingham School of Veterinary Medicine and Science on Saturday 9th November 2013, 10am – 4.30pm.

Topics will include:

- Problem based approach to decision making
- Canine and feline diarrhoea
- The US shelter medicine perspective
- There will also be some discussion workshops which may include:
  - Early neutering
  - The laws surrounding stray dogs and cats
  - Justifying tests and treatment with pragmatism
  - Balancing restricted/open intake with euthanasia and ethics.

Who should attend?

- Those working for/employed by a charity
- Those in private practice providing services / advice for a charity
- Practices accessing charitable help for patients
- Those providing services for rescue/rehoming organisations (shelter medicine)

Cost: Veterinary surgeons / veterinary nurses: £35

Veterinary students: £15

Generously sponsored by:

Registration Form (please complete a separate form for each delegate)

Title..... First Name.....

Last Name.....

Address.....

.....

.....

Postcode.....Tel.....

Email:.....

I am a:

☐

Veterinary Surgeon and enclose a cheque for £35 payable to the Association of Charity Vets

☐

Veterinary Nurse and enclose a cheque for £35 payable to the Association of Charity Vets

☐

Veterinary student and enclose a cheque for £15 payable to the Association of Charity Vets. Veterinary College.....

Special dietary requirements.....

Any other special requirements.....

NOTE:

- Places are limited and will be allocated on a first come, first served basis (payment can only be accepted by cheque)
- Please ensure you enclose a valid email address as all correspondence including confirmation and directions to the venue will be issued electronically
- CPD certificates and receipts will be issued on the day
- The Association of Charity Vets is unable to offer refunds if delegates are unable to attend on 9 November 2013

Please send your completed registration form and payment to:

Paula Boyden/Caroline Allenden, Association of Charity Vets, 17
Wakley Street, London, EC1V 7RQ