

Online Symposium

 Free

Co-creation in the Arts, Culture and Heritage in Local Authority Partnerships in Places

Join us for a series of 15-minute presentations which will explore experiential insights into the co-creation models selected sector professionals deploy in their work and place partnerships.

Tuesday 17th June 2025

10:00am-12noon

Online via teams

This is an opportunity to hear about achievements, challenges, impact of committing to co-creation during these uncertain times, top tips, and reflections.

Find out more and book here

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/co-creation-arts-heritage-local-authority-partnership-in-places-tickets>

Presenters include:

Sara Harrison - Senior Manager, Engagement and Communities

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL
ENGLAND

Kate Parkin - Senior Officer, Peer Learning Programme, Place-Based and Creative Ageing

Salla Virman - Head of Culture and Creative Economy

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL
ENGLAND

Isobel Hunter - Chief Executive

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL
ENGLAND

Kim Wide - Co-CEO and Artistic Director

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL
ENGLAND

Jayne Knight - Arts Development Manager

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL
ENGLAND

Dr Rachel Connor - Senior Research Fellow in Co-creation, AHRC Creative Communities Programme

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL
ENGLAND

Hosts:

Amanda Hanton - Cultural Participation Team Manager

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL
ENGLAND

Daniel H. Mutibwa - Associate Professor of Creative Industries and Digital Culture

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL
ENGLAND

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL
ENGLAND

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL
ENGLAND

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL
ENGLAND