

In the Shadow of the Standard: A workshop and networking event for Early Career Researchers on the influence of standard language ideology on non-standard language(s)

Saturday 22 September 2018, Room A01, Highfield House, University of Nottingham

Programme

Registration and welcome address

9:15-9:45 Registration

9:45-10:00 Welcome and introduction: Olivia Walsh (University of Nottingham)

Keynote (Chair: Olivia Walsh)

10:00-11:00 Professor Ingrid Tieken-Boon van Ostade (Leiden University Centre for Linguistics)
Of greengrocers, footballers, sports commentators, estate agents and television presenters: What's in a usage guide and why

11:00-11:30 Coffee break

Standard language ideology (Chair: Ruth Kircher)

11:30-12:00 James Hawkey & Damien Mooney, University of Bristol
Standard language ideologies in Catalan and Occitan: The problem of pluricentricity

12:00-12:30 Çise Çavuşoğlu, Near East University
Muttering resistance: Standard language ideologies and the case of Turkish Cypriot young people in London

12:30-13:00 Petros Karatsareas, University of Westminster
Through two lenses: The re-enregisterment of Cypriot Greek in London's Greek Cypriot diaspora

13:00-14:00 Lunch

Language attitudes (Chair: Damien Mooney)

14:00-14:30 Ruth Kircher, Liverpool Hope University & Sue Fox, University of Bern
Multicultural London English in the shadow of Standard English: An investigation of language attitudes

14:30-15:00 Hui Zhao (Annette), University of Nottingham
Attitudes towards Regional Putonghua in Shanghai and Ningbo

15:00-15:30 John Bellamy, Manchester Metropolitan University
What is Standard Luxembourgish? Perceptions of the standard, one year after the March 2017 official Strategy for the Promotion of the Luxembourgish Language

15:30-16:00 Coffee break

PechaKucha presentations (Chair: Erin Carrie)

16:00-16:30 Merryn Davies-Deacon, Queen's University Belfast
New speakers and standards in Breton

Katiuska Ferrer Portillo, University of Bristol
Bristolian, an invisible dialect?

Svetlana Jedygarova, University of Helsinki
Language ideologies and minority languages of Russia

16:30-17:00 Emma Humphries, University of Nottingham
Defending the French language: Comparing 19th century and modern-day attitudes to 'good' and 'bad' language in France.

Sara Cotelli Kureth, University of Neuchâtel
Purism and metaphors: looking for the French exception

Constance Mbassi Manga, Lancaster University
Camfranglais in the diaspora - a little bit of "home away from home"

17:00-17:30 Nahoko Mulvey, University of Birmingham
Constructed language ideology, kokugo - Japanese as a national language: explored through linguistic ethnography at Japanese as a heritage language schools in England

Kate Rowley, UCL
Language Attitudes in the British Deaf Community

Christine Wallis, University of Sheffield
Compunction and Subpunction: correction and linguistic norms in Anglo-Saxon prayers

17:30-19:00 Wine reception/networking

19:00 Close
