

Primary Care Undergraduate Educators' Conference

To inspire, nurture and develop excellence in primary care undergraduate education

3rd October 2019

East Midlands Conference Centre, Nottingham, NG7 2RJ

Time	Programme
08:45	Registration, refreshments and networking				Atrium
09:30	Introduction, welcome and housekeeping				Theatre
09:45	Professor Tony Avery and Dr Jaspal Taggar Evolution or revolution of primary care education? A University of Nottingham perspective!				Theatre
10:15	World Café, food for thought...? (a fun, friendly and flexible way to discuss hot topics in primary care education)				Theatre
11:15	Break; refreshments and networking				Atrium
11:30	Room 3  Dr Summer Scullard & Dr Gurvinder Sahota  Teach clinical skills to the new generation of doctors!	Room 4  Dr Richard Knox  Professionalism in practice: nurturing the good and exploring the bad	Gallery 1  Dr Gail Allsopp, Dr Anjla Sharman & Dr Jaz Taggar  The GP Academy: near-peer education to train and retain!	Gallery 2  Dr Simon Gay  Clinical reasoning skills in primary care: educating students in the consulting room
12:30	Lunch, refreshments and poster presentations				Atrium
13:30	Professor Bob McKinley A fortunate man: 30 years a GP academic...				Theatre
14:15	Room 3  Dr Yasmin Ackbarally & Dr Robert Jay  Assessing primary care consultation skills in the OSCE – past, present and future	Room 4  Dr Bakula Patel  Jargon busting	Gallery 1  Dr Stuart Holloway  When Harry met Csikszentmihalyi	Gallery 2  Dr Anjla Sharman  Potential pit-falls and top tips for teaching consultation skills
15:15	Break; refreshments and networking				Atrium
15:30	Dr Helen Garr Go to Rome - a tour of wellbeing for doctors				Theatre
16:15	Close				Theatre