

The University of Nottingham

UNITED KINGDOM · CHINA · MALAYSIA

The Science, Technology and Society
Priority Group conference

Circling the square 2: universities, the media, citizens and politics

Monday 22 and Tuesday 23 June 2015
Highfield House, University Park

Circling the square 2: universities, the media, citizens and politics

Monday 22 and Tuesday 23 June 2015 at Highfield House, University Park

Organised by the Science, Technology and Society Priority Group at The University of Nottingham. This conference will explore the role of knowledge in policy making, bringing together international scholars in the natural sciences, social sciences and humanities, practitioners at the science-policy interface, the public, and the media. It concludes with a public debate Who decides the future: science, politics or the people? at the Council House, Nottingham.

Keynote speakers:

- Professor David Nutt, Director of the Neuropsychopharmacology Unit, Imperial College London, and former Chair of the Advisory Committee on the Misuse of Drugs
- Professor Mike Hulme, Professor of Climate and Culture, King's College London, author of Can Science Fix Climate Change? and Why We Disagree About Climate Change

Venue:

Highfield House
University Park
Nottingham NG7 2RD

Costs:

	Early-bird	After 15 May
Standard:	£40	£60
Student:	£20	£40

For a full list of speakers and programme, or to register online, visit nott.ac.uk/circlingthesquare #circlesq