Welcome back to Nottingham

Your handy Students’ Union guide to living in the community
Introduction

We’ve put together this handy guide for those of you who aren’t living in University-run accommodation during your first year.

Whether you’re privately renting somewhere, living with your parents or guardians and commuting, or living in halls that aren’t run by the University, your Students’ Union is here for you. We know living out has its challenges, which is why this guide is filled with top hints and tips to help you get involved, find support and make sure you have an incredible time.

And if things do get overwhelming, we’ve included a list of key contacts who can help you when you need it.

Welcome from your Community Officer

“Hello, I’m Jacob your Students’ Union Community Officer.

I was elected by students like you to fight for better student housing, tackle hate crime and help connect you with your local area.

Moving out into the community can be an exciting and daunting experience, so we’ve put together this handy guide to help you. Inside you can find out more about your local area, how to get involved in worthwhile volunteering opportunities, and how your SU can help you if you ever face any problems.

I hope you enjoy your time living off-campus and that you can make a positive impact on your neighbourhood.”

Jacob Collier
SU Community Officer

Welcome from the Student Living team

We’re a Students’ Union department that looks after all things student living. From hall committees and living in the community (like you!) to living at our satellite campuses and living off-campus, we’re here to help make sure you have an amazing experience at UoN.

Your role as a housemate

Sharing a house with your friends is something you'll always remember from your time at University – and as a housemate, you'll play a role in making sure shared living is a fantastic experience.

Create a rota.

As soon as everyone has moved in, create a rota of all the chores and tasks the whole household will have responsibility for. Whether that's washing up, cleaning the bathroom or putting the bins and recycling out, decide as a group who does what and when. And when something isn't quite right, avoid passive aggressive notes and revenge tactics; it's super important to talk to each other!

Spend time together.

Organise something social that involves everyone in the house – maybe a movie night or making homemade pizzas together.

SU Advice says:

Have a chat with your housemates about visitors and acceptable noise levels. It's good to talk this through early on to make sure you all agree on house rules.

Here are some day-to-day practicalities to help you have the best time:

Create a rota. As soon as everyone has moved in, create a rota of all the chores and tasks the whole household will have responsibility for. Whether that's washing up, cleaning the bathroom or putting the bins and recycling out, decide as a group who does what and when. And when something isn't quite right, avoid passive aggressive notes and revenge tactics; it's super important to talk to each other!

Your role as a neighbour

Even if you live in an area that's home to lots of other students, there's often a number of long-term residents living there too. As a good neighbour, you can look out for each other, get to know new people and feel more at home where you live.

Things you could do:

Say hello! If you're friendly and approachable, you're much more likely to have a positive relationship with your neighbours.

Let your neighbours know if you are planning a party. It's best to try and keep it to a Friday or Saturday night, and make sure you agree an acceptable time for it to end.

When you order a taxi, remember to ask the driver not to sound their horn when they arrive as it can disturb your neighbours. And always keep the noise down when you come back from a night out.
Your role as a member of the community

When you live in Nottingham and the surrounding area, you’re part of a vibrant community. There’s loads to love about living here, and there’s plenty you can do to get involved and make Nottingham a city we can all be proud to live in.

SU Advice: top tips

Follow SU Advice’s top tips to keep your home clean, tidy and comfortable.

1. Always keep the house clean. Think about drawing up a cleaning rota – it’s a good way to prevent squabbles with your housemates!

2. Make sure you heat and air the house properly.

3. Check smoke alarm batteries every week and change lightbulbs when you need to.

4. Be careful what you put down your sink and toilet!

5. Check if you have responsibility for maintaining the garden, as some contracts specify that you do.
