

How has the covid-19 pandemic affected eczema self-management and help seeking?

Changes to everyday life

Changes to access to advice and treatment

A qualitative interview study with young people and parents/carers of children with eczema