

Distance Learning Summer School 2021

21–25 June 2021. All timings are in UK time. All sessions and content will be available via Microsoft Teams.

REBECCA GREGORY MAY 24, 2021 02:11PM

Monday 21 June

10.00 Welcome and social

Teams meeting to get to know each other and the Distance Learning / Applied English teams before the Summer School starts.

14.00 Prof. Josephine Guy and Dr Rebekah Scott

‘Oscar Wilde and Henry James’

18.00 Dr Paweł Szudarski

‘What is replication research, and why do we need it in Applied Linguistics?’

Tuesday 22 June

10.00 Dr Lucie Sutherland

‘Musical theatre scholarship: how we research and write about mainstream culture’

14.00 Dr Jess Norledge and Prof. Peter Stockwell

‘puH Hutlhbogh nuv’e’ – create a new language’

18.00 Prof. Judith Jesch

‘Enslavement in the Viking Age’

Wednesday 23 June

10.00 Dr James Chetwood

‘Making a name for yourself: personal names in medieval England’

14.00 Dr Helen Buckler

‘You say tomato, I say tomahto: who cares? – developing knowledge of accent variation’

18.00 Dr Vicky Walker

‘Early medieval women’s voices’

Thursday 24 June

10.00 Dr Peter Kirwan

‘Shakespeare without words’

14.00 Dr Joe Jackson

'Expletives included: swearing in Scottish writing'

18.00 Dr Helena Bacon

'Rewriting Homer: Greek myth in contemporary fiction'

Friday 25 June

10.00 Prof. Kathy Conklin

'Words in the mind'

14.00 From Distance Learning to PhD

Q&A session with current PhD students, with a focus on the transition from MA study at distance to PhD.
