

Distance Learning Summer School 2022

We look forward to seeing you for Summer School! If you have any questions in advance of or during the event, please email applied-english@nottingham.ac.uk

REBECCA GREGORY MAY 27, 2022 10:19AM

Monday

Welcome

Registration (including goodie bags) and refreshments from 10.00 on D floor of the Monica Partridge building.

10.30–12.00

Dr Malgorzata Chalupnik, 'How do businesses and brands speak to us?'

Lunch

13.00–14.30

Prof. Nicola Royan, 'Sorry, not sorry: Robert Henryson's The Testament of Cresseid'

Break

15.00–16.30

Dr Dominic Thompson, 'Effects of language in videogames'

18.00 Welcome dinner

At the Orchard Hotel on University Park. Dinner will be in a private room (the Worcester Suite), so there's no dress code! The room (and wine) will be available from 18.00, with dinner served at 18.30.

Tuesday

09.30–10.30

Dr Ikuya Aizawa, 'English Medium Instruction (EMI) and the internationalisation of Higher Education'

Break

11.00–12.00

Dr Adam Rounce, 'Frankenstein, Ideas and influence, from Paradise Lost to the Posthuman'

Lunch

13.00–14.00

Dr Richard Jason Whitt, 'Historical corpus linguistics'

Break

14.30–16.30

Dr Sarah Grandage, 'Speaking through the body': drama and performance workshop

Wednesday

09.30–10.30

Dr Matt Welton, 'Things and thinginess in poetry'

Excursion to Chatsworth House

Including a guided tour of the house, and access to the gardens and parkland.

The coach will leave from Cut Through Lane near the Hallward Library at 10.45 - we will walk down as a group from the Monica Partridge building. A packed lunch will be provided, for us to eat once we arrive at Chatsworth.

Thursday

09.30–12.00

Prof. Peter Stockwell and Dr Jess Norledge, 'Secret squirrel stylistics session'

There will be a refreshment break at approx. 10.30.

NB: All squirrels will be provided; no need to bring your own.

Lunch

13.00–14.15

Dr Rebecca Gregory, 'Viking Nottinghamshire'

Break

Including time to walk down to the Lakeside Arts Centre

15.00 Last Orders

Guided tour of the Last Orders exhibition at the Weston Gallery (Lakeside Arts Centre, University Park) with the curator, Dr David Beckingham.

If any of you would like to see the exhibition in advance, or revisit it after the tour, you can find opening times on the Lakeside Arts website.

Friday

09.30–10.30

Dr Carina Hart, 'Gothic fairytale'

Break

11.00–12.00

Dr Kate Kim-Mclean, 'Witches and wicked wives: Macbeth, manuscripts and misogyny'

Lunch

13.00–14.30

Dr Martin Findell, 'Text in three dimensions: the Franks Casket'

Close

Information

Unless otherwise indicated, all sessions will be held in the Monica Partridge building on University Park, in room D02.

You can find more information, including maps and access plans, on the Summer School Sharepoint.

