

School of English

Distance Learning Summer School

3–7 July 2023

Important information

Locations:

Unless otherwise indicated, all academic sessions will take place in room D02 of the Monica Partridge building.

Contacts:

If you need to contact a member of the AE team during the week, the quickest way is to send a Teams message to Jess or Beccs.

In case of emergency on campus, First Aider details are on signage around University buildings. University Security can be telephoned on 01159518888.

In case of emergency off campus, the UK emergency number is 999. You will be asked which service you require: police, fire, or ambulance.

Internet access:

The University wireless network is Eduroam. You will need to sign in with your email address (e.g. aexrg@nottingham.ac.uk) and password.

More information about the campus, facilities, and getting around can be found on the Summer School SharePoint site.

Monday 3 July

9.30 onwards	Welcome to Summer School 2023! Dr Steven Morrison (Director of Teaching) and the Applied English team	Registration (including goodie bags) and breakfast-style refreshments from 9.30 on D floor of the Monica Partridge building.
10.30 – 12.00	‘Voice’ in poetry: a creative writing workshop Dr Lila Matsumoto
12.00 – 13.00	Lunch
13.00 – 16.30	Plants and Prayers Dr Christina Lee	We will be joining Dr Christina Lee for a bespoke tour of her exhibition ‘Plants and Prayers’ which is currently being hosted by Lakeside Arts on University Park. The tour will be followed by some practical activities thinking about curation and the presentation of research for the public. We will be walking across Campus to the Lakeside Arts Centre for part of this session, and will be stopping by the Trent Building on the way back. It's about a 10-minute walk each way. If you have particular accessibility requirements, do let us know and we can arrange alternative transportation. There will be a refreshment break during the afternoon.
16.30	Welcome reception	Please join us for our welcome reception in the Council Dining Room, A21 Trent Building. Refreshments (wine and soft drinks) will be provided.

Tuesday 4 July

10.00 – 16.30	The National Justice Museum Including: Specialist trial workshop led by the Justice Museum team, followed by two UoN academic sessions held in the Victorian courtroom. Forensic linguistics: an introduction to language and the law Dr Kevin Harvey Elements of detective fiction: genre, convention, tradition Dr Jem Bloomfield	Please wear comfortable clothing, including sensible shoes, and a waterproof jacket or umbrella. We will meet you in the Old Market Square in Nottingham City Centre. Some of us may be travelling from campus, we will update you closer to the time. Lunch will be provided. Content note: The National Justice museum is a former prison, courthouse, and execution site. This trip will involve discussion of crime, punishment, and violence throughout the day. If you have any concerns about the content, please get in touch with one of the AE team.
16.30 – 17.30	Bespoke guided street-name tour of Nottingham Dr John Baker and Dr Rebecca Gregory	Anyone who would like to join the street-name tour but is not coming to the NJM should meet at 16.15 at the Weekday Cross, on the corner of High Pavement.

Wednesday 5 July

9.30 – 10.30	Language and identity: analysing race in the talk of LGBTQ+ youth Dr Lucy Jones	Content note: This session will include discussion of some racist and homophobic language. If you have any concerns about the content, please speak to one of the AE team.
10.30 – 11.00	Refreshments
11.00 – 12.00	Why 'study' Victorian literature? Prof. Josephine Guy
12.00 – 13.00	Lunch
13.00 – 14.30	To be confirmed Dr Matt Green	Content note: This session may include discussions of sexual violence, substance abuse, and mental illness, as well as the critique of representations of discrimination and bias (conscious and unconscious) in relation to race, gender, sexuality, disability and class. if you have any concerns about the content, please speak to one of the AE team.
14.30 – 15.00	Refreshments
15.00 – 16.30	Sin and the social body on the medieval stage Dr Dana Key	With bonus medieval Ale House Quiz!
18.00 onwards	Celebration Dinner We will meet in the bar area of the Orchard Hotel at 18.00, then move through to the restaurant. Food will be served from 18.30.	At Bramleys Brasserie, Orchard Hotel, University Park There is a bar and lounge area at the hotel for anyone who would like to meet earlier.

Thursday 6 July

9.30 – 10.30	Making the audience riot: J.M. Synge and the Irish Stage Prof. Jim Moran
10.30 – 11.00	Refreshments
11.00 – 12.00	What did Donne do? Prof. Peter Stockwell
12.00 – 13.00	Lunch
13.30 – 17.00	MSS x AH @ KMC UoN!! Dr Andrew Harrison	For this session we will be heading over to our King's Meadow Campus, which is home to Manuscripts and Special Collections. We will be joined by Dr Andrew Harrison who will be leading us in a session looking at original items from the D. H. Lawrence collection. This is a unique opportunity to see archival material first-hand, guided by an expert in the field. The session with the D. H. Lawrence material will be followed by a guided tour of the Special Collections facilities, from archives to digitisation and conservation. For this session we will be travelling over to King's Meadow Campus using the University's free Hopper Bus. There will be a refreshment break during the afternoon.

Friday 7 July

9.30 – 10.30	‘[A] calculated failure of service’: the ‘short stories’ of M John Harrison’s You Should Come With Me Now (2016) Dr Steven Morrison
10.30 – 11.00	Refreshments
11.00 – 12.00	Art and devotion in the late medieval Midlands Dr Jo Martin
12.00 – 13.00	Lunch
13.00 – 14.30	Computer- and mobile-assisted language learning: interactions between technology, learners and teachers Dr Paweł Szudarski
14.30	Close of Summer School 2023	