

GEP Bulletin
December 2017

Papers available on the GEP Research Paper Series since last Bulletin:

- 2017-14 Giammario Impullitti, Omar Licandro and Pontus Rendahl
Technology, market structure and the gains from trade
- 2017-15 Fabrice Defever and Alejandro Riaño
Twin peaks
- 2017-16 Markus Eberhardt and Francis Teal
The magnitude of the task ahead: Macro implications of heterogeneous technology

Future Diary Dates:

Nottingham Globalisation Lectures

8th February 2018 5pm, A48, SCGB - Martin Wolf, Financial Times
8th March 2018, 5pm, B62, L&SS – Anna Soubry, MP for Broxtowe

Nottingham Lectures in International Economics

Thierry Verdier, Paris School of Economics
Three lectures in A39, SCGB
“Globalisation institutions and cultural evolution”

Wednesday 31st January 2018 - 16:00-17:00
The economics of culture and preferences' evolution

Thursday 1st February 2018 - 15:00-16:00
International trade, migration and cultural diversity

Thursday 1st February 2018 - 16:00-17:00
Globalisation, institutions and cultural change

Conference

17th GEP Postgraduate Conference

19th and 20th April 2018
Conference Convenors: Roberto Bonfatti and Alejandro Riaño
Keynote speaker: Dr Ferdinand Rauch (University of Oxford)