

The Leverhulme Centre for Research on Globalisation and Economic Policy

Post-Graduate Conference, 2002

The Leverhulme Centre for Research on Globalisation and Economic Policy (GEP), University of Nottingham, Nottingham, United Kingdom.
23rd May, 2002

Call for Papers

The first GEP Post-Graduate Conference will take place on 23rd May 2002 at the University of Nottingham. The Conference is intended to provide a forum for the dissemination of student research relating to issues of Globalisation and Economic Policy from both theoretical and empirical perspectives. These areas include Foreign Direct Investment, Trade, Productivity, Migration and Labour Market Adjustment.

The objective of the Conference is to bring together a number of Ph.D. students to discuss their own research ideas with established researchers in a relaxed and open atmosphere. The Conference is open to graduate students engaged in the preparation of a doctoral dissertation or approaching this stage. Speakers will be selected on the basis of submitted abstracts.

Finance:

The Leverhulme Centre for Research on Globalisation and Economic Policy will cover local expenses and will provide travel expenses for speakers.

Application:

Deadline for submission is 1 April 2002.

Applicants must submit a CV, one letter of support from the Ph.D. supervisor, and an abstract for a potential presentation. Those who are invited to present a paper are expected to deliver a complete paper in time for distribution among the participants. Submissions by email are requested.

Applications should be sent to:
