

The Murphy Institute,
CESifo
and Leverhulme Centre for Research on Globalisation and Economic Policy

Conference on Global Migration:
Economics, Politics, Policy
11-12 March 2011

THE MURPHY INSTITUTE
TULANE UNIVERSITY

11 March 2011

● 9:00a--Welcome

- Steven Sheffrin (Murphy Institute, Tulane University)
- Doug Nelson (Murphy Institute, Tulane University)

Panel I. Migration and Trade

● 9:15-10:15

- Richard Upward (Nottingham): Do foreign workers reduce trade barriers: microeconomic evidence

- 10:15-10:30, Coffee

- 10:30-12:30

- Philip Martin (UC Davis): Trade and Migration: Comparing Mexico-US and Turkey EU

- Peter Egger (ETH-Zürich): Trade and Migration

- 12:30-1:30, Lunch (At the Intercontinental)

Panel II. Migration and Labor Markets

- 1:30-3:30p

- Anna Maria Mayda (Georgetown): South-South Migration and the Labor Market: Evidence from South Africa

- Madeline Zavodny (Agnes Scott College): Chinese Immigrants in the U.S. Labor Market: Effects of Post-Tiananmen Immigration Policy

- 3:30-3:45, Coffee

Panel III. Migration Data Challenges

- 3:45-4:45

- Çağlar Özden (World Bank): Migration data challenges

- 6:30p: Dinner at K-Pauls (416 Chartres, New Orleans)

12 March 2011

Panel IV. Taxing Remittances

- 9:00-10:00a

- Jay Wilson (Michigan State University): The Optimal Tax Treatment of Remittances

- 10:00-10:15a: Coffee

Panel V. Political Economy of Migration

- 10:15-12:15

- Giovanni Facchini (Erasmus): The rhetoric of closed borders: quotas, lax enforcement and illegal migration

- Michael Hiscox (Harvard): TBA

- 12:15-1:30: Lunch

Panel VI. Political Economy, II

- 1:30-3:30

- Jens Hainmueller (MIT): TBA

- Yotam Margalit (Columbia): TBA

- 3:30-3:45, coffee

- 3:45-4:45

- Spiros Bougheas (Nottingham): Skilled Worker Migration

and Trade: Inequality and Welfare

- 6:00-6:45--Reception (Herbsaint)
- 7:00p--Dinner at Herbsaint (701 St. Charles, New Orleans)

The conference venue is the Intercontinental Hotel, 44 St. Charles Avenue, New Orleans, LA.

Participant list.