

GEP/NICEP Volkswagen Foundation Workshop on “The Economic Roots of Populism”

26th - 27th April 2019

A40, Sir Clive Granger Building, University of Nottingham

Conference Organisers:

Giovanni Facchini, Richard Upward, Anja Neundorf, Cecilia Testa (all University of Nottingham) and Sergi Pardos (University of Oxford)

Programme

Friday 26th April

09:00–09:30 Workshop Registration and Tea/Coffee in A45

In A40:

09:30–10:20 “Did austerity cause Brexit?”
Thiemo Fetzer (University of Warwick)

10:20–11:10 “Collective emotions and protest vote”
Francesco Passarelli (University of Turin)

11:10–11:30 Tea/Coffee in A45

11:30–12:20 “Multidimensional preferences, salience and entry of populists: a citizen-candidate theory of populist entry timing”
Margherita Negri (University of St Andrews) and Massimo Morelli (Bocconi)

12:20–13:10 “Economic insecurity and the causes of populism, reconsidered”
Yotham Margalit (Tel Aviv University)

13:10–14:20 Lunch in A45

14:20–16:20 WV Session: The rise of populist parties in Europe: The dark side of globalisation and technological change?
Steffen Mueller (IWH, Halle)
Stepan Jurajda (CERGE-EI, Prague)
Richard Upward (Nottingham)
Sergi Pardos (Oxford) and Anja Neundorf (Nottingham)

16:20–16:45 Tea/Coffee in A45

16:45–18:00 Keynote
“A simpleton’s guide to the politics of knowledge society”
Herbert Kitschelt (Duke University)

19.10 Taxis leave Orchard Hotel to go to World Service restaurant

19:30 Workshop Dinner at World Service,
Newdigate House, Castlegate, Nottingham

Saturday 27th April

09:00–09:30 Tea/Coffee in A45

In A40:

9:30–10:20 Subjective and objective positional deprivation, and the economic roots of nationalist backlash and populism
Brian Burgoon (University of Amsterdam)

10:20–11:10 “Unequal gains, prolonged pain”
Gerald Willmann (Bielefeld)

11.10 Close