

IP Rights, Technology, and International Trade Research Workshop

26 June 2025

A40, Sir Clive Granger Building, University of Nottingham

8:30-9:00	Registration and Coffee in A42
9:00-9:45	Giammario Impullitti (University of Nottingham)	Market power, growth and wealth inequality
9:45-10:30	Thomas Rowley (University of Bocconi)	Supply chain shocks, managerial responses and resilience: Evidence from European firms
10:30-11:00	Break in A42
11:00-11:45	Pinar Gunes (University of Sussex)	Artificial Intelligence, trade and firm dynamics
11:45-12:30	Xufei Zhang (Brunel University)	Generative AI and the labour market: Workers' beliefs and behavioural responses
12:30-14:00	Lunch in A42
14:00-14:45	Yannis Papadakis (CMA)	Access to justice: IP enforcement costs and international trade
14:45-15:30	Alireza Jay Naghavi (Kyoto University)	Slice to protect
15:30-16:00	Break in A42
16:00-17:00	Keynote - online Jim Bessen (Boston University)	What's wrong with R&D?

The workshop is supported by the host universities, University of Sussex and University of Nottingham, Centre for Inclusive Trade Policy (CITP) and Nottingham Centre for Research on Globalisation and Economic Policy (GEP), Competition and Markets Authority and a grant from The British Academy.