Welcome from the Chaplaincy Team

The purpose of this booklet, produced by the University Chaplaincy team, is to introduce to you some of the different people and groups who may be able to help you with the spiritual side of studying or working at the University.

Coming to university can be a very important time in your spiritual life. For some, it is an exciting step that helps you own your faith personally, rather than simply following it because your family do. For others, being separated from your faith community at home is a daunting prospect. It may also raise some big questions for you. You may find that you've come to the University with no faith but want to explore what your course mates and friends believe and why.

The University chaplains are here to support students and staff of any faith or none. Whatever your background, we are here to support you in your journey of faith, your practice of your own faith, or your exploration of faith.

We have strong connections with the local community and its communities of faith. We can advise on local places of worship, student faith societies, and how your faith interacts with academic life and your chosen discipline.

In this booklet there is a section for each of the main religions represented at the University. If you are interested in a religion which is not listed here, or have a question that this booklet doesn't answer, please contact us in person, or by email or phone using the details below, and we will be happy to help.

The main chaplaincy is in the Portland Building on University Park Campus (C1, on the first floor past the West Concourse Lounge). You are always welcome to drop in and talk to a chaplain during term-time, 10am-5pm, or to make an appointment.

Chaplains regularly visit Jubilee Campus where we have prayer rooms and an office – please email for an appointment. Chaplains at Sutton Bonington can be contacted through the Student Services Centre. Please also see our separate leaflet for Sutton Bonington.

Christian support

The Christian chaplains seek to support members of the University in a variety of different ways. We would be delighted if you got in touch for a chat about anything at all that concerns you. In particular we are here to help anybody explore the Christian faith, develop their faith or connect with student Christian communities and local churches. We all have a wide experience of Christian churches – our 'denominational' labels are only a guide!

Feel free to contact any of us individually using the email addresses on page 18 or email all of us together at christianchaplains@nottingham.ac.uk

Christian chaplains

Please see page 18 for the contact details of our Christian chaplains.

Our newsletter

Our enewsletter, Spirited, is produced by members of the Christian Chaplaincy team for all Christian students at The University of Nottingham. It contains news of what's on in and around the University and the city. To sign up, visit www.nottingham.ac.uk/chaplaincy/christianity

Events

Public lectures

We host one or two public lectures each year in which we seek to promote the discussion of issues of faith, and its interaction with academic disciplines and public life. Recent years have included lectures on 'The God Delusion', international law, plus various lectures on science and faith.

Services

Our largest service of the year is the University Festival of Lessons and Carols, which takes place in the traditional setting of St Mary's Church, in the Lace Market, during December. It features excellent student chamber and gospel choirs by candlelight – come early for the best seats!

We seek to further promote Christian Unity by offering joint services of worship at several points in the year on some of the other Christian festivals which fall within term-time; for example, a service in the University Chapel on Ash Wednesday, an open-air service by the lake on Ascension Day in May, and an event to celebrate Christian Unity Week.

Staff

We are very much here for staff as well as students. Much of our support for staff exists informally around the University: meeting up for lunch or a coffee and offering a listening ear. We very much like to hear about the main issues for staff members at the University. We also run occasional lectures or events that are hopefully of interest to staff.

There is a Christian staff network which operates as an online support group, as well as offering regular lunchtime meetings for Bible study, prayer and discussions.

Members of staff who are Christians can sign up for a newsletter from the Christian Chaplaincy team which is usually sent out twice a term by emailing John Bentham, Coordinating Chaplain at john.bentham@nottingham.ac.uk

Provision at University Park Campus

See page 17 for details.

Provision at Jubilee Campus

There is a chaplaincy office and prayer rooms on the first floor of the Amenities Block (above Cafe Aspire). Chaplains regularly visit the campus – please email for an appointment: christianchaplains@nottingham.ac.uk

Provision at Sutton Bonington Campus

The Chaplaincy Team has two Christian chaplains based at Sutton Bonington, Chris Dakin and Val Owens. You can contact them using the details on page 18 or through the Student Services Centre in Main Building where they have use of room A9. Chris is chaplain to Sutton Bonington and is available most days. You're particularly likely to see him around the campus on Thursdays and Fridays and if you do, please introduce yourself. Val is especially (but not exclusively) available for international students and is around most days.

Anglican chaplains (Church of England)

Chaplains John Bentham and Megan Smith are pleased to be able to offer support to any student.

There are no specific Anglican groups on campus, but several hundred students who come from that background worship in a wide variety of churches across Nottingham. We can advise on all varieties: evangelical, charismatic, Anglo-Catholic and all stops in between! We also offer support to the Christian Union and other Christian groups on campus.

You are most welcome to join Megan at her churches in Lenton, Holy Trinity and the Priory. For more details, see www.lentonparish.org.uk

We try to share our faith in our daily lives with all whom we meet. All are welcome!

Sunday Mass is celebrated at 11am each Sunday of the year in the Great Hall in Trent Building on University Park.

Radical Youth

Radical Youth is a Christian Pentecostal youth fellowship which started at The University of Nottingham in 2003 and has spread to 20 universities in the UK, including Nottingham Trent University. We are driven by our passion to see Christians live for Christ on campus. We meet every Wednesday at 7pm, to stir up one another in the faith via worship, Bible study and getting to know one another. We also have annual events, such as the 'weekend away' where we meet up with members from other universities for a time of empowerment through prayers and seminars.

As we are a family, we have a lot of fun moments at these events and at our meetings, where we create a space to get to know one another. We also have sub-divisions where members get to know each other better and express themselves in singing (Radical voices) and acting (Radical acts).
