

NINETEENTH ANNUAL STUDENT HUMAN RIGHTS CONFERENCE

Human Rights in a Digitalised World

Saturday 17 March 2018, University of Nottingham

Highfield House, University of Nottingham Programme

10.15 Welcome refreshments and registration The Cloisters, Highfield House

10:45 Conference opening Professor Dominic McGoldrick and Morning Session Room A01, Highfield House

Chaired by Professor Dominic McGoldrick, Professor of International Human Rights Law and HRLC Co-Director

The Future Doesn't Work

Dr Gus Hosein, Executive Director, Privacy International

Transatlantic Internet Surveillance and the Fundamental Rights to Privacy and Data Protection: Schrems, Privacy Shield and beyond

Dr Maria Tzanou, Lecturer in Law, Keele University

11.45 Refreshments The Cloisters, Highfield House

12.00 Panel 1

Panel 1: The State v The Individual: Technological advances and human rights

A09 Highfield House, Chaired by Elena Lunder

Privacy Rights Via the Internet: Data Mining In American and European Systems as a Violation of Internet Privacy Rights

Maria Noriega, University of Oslo

Internet Censorship and Authoritarian Oligarchies: New Limits of 'Rights to Internet' Leapfrogging

Made Adhitya Anggriawan, Lancaster University

National and International Security in a Digitalised World

Ujjaini Chatterji, University of Nottingham

13.00 Lunch The Cloisters, Highfield House

13.45 Afternoon Session Room A01, Highfield House

Chaired by Professor David Harris, Professor Emeritus and HRLC Co-Director

Freedom of Expression and Media Freedom in the Digital Age

Jacob Rowbottom, Fellow of University College, Oxford, and Associate Professor of Law in the Faculty of Law, University of Oxford

From Delfi to Tamiz: to what extent are online intermediaries protected from liability under the European Convention on Human Rights

Jonathan McCully, Senior Legal Officer, Media Legal Defence Initiative

Pre-emptive 'recommender systems' in policing - looking backwards to move forwards

Marion Oswald, Senior Fellow, University of Winchester

---

15.00 Refreshments

The Cloisters, Highfield House

---

15.15 Panel 2

Panel 2: Digitalisation and the courts: The human rights implications

A09 Highfield House, Chaired by Devni Kitulagoda

How the digital era may shape court proceedings and/or evidence gathering? A human rights assessment

Jake McGrath, University of Nottingham

Present When Absent: How Technology Has Changed The Way In Which International Criminal Courts and Tribunals Approach The Accused's Right To Be Present At Trial

Caleb Wheeler, Middlesex University

Human Dignity in the face of robotic decision-making: a vision of the future of human rights?

André Dao, University of Cambridge

16.15 Closing Remarks from Professor David Harris

Room A01, Highfield House

16.30 Conference close.

The Human Rights Law Centre wishes to acknowledge the support of Weightmans and Ropewalk Chambers

