Roll 20d

892 LAW William de Blida <essoyn, in mercy for a false claim> complains of William Fykeis. On Fri after the feast of St Gregory last (16 Mar 1324) in Derby William Fykeis made an assault on William de Blida, called him a false man, a thief and a stealer of horses, cows and oxen by which he lost the credit of William de Aleby of a sack of wool (uno sacco lane) worth 10m. Damages: 40s. He produces suit. William Fykeis comes and defends the force and says he did not call him a false man⁹⁶ nor a stealer of horses⁹⁷ and that he is not guilty. Law. Plgs of law: Richard Dod, John de Wydmerpol. Adjudged that William Fykeis should come with 12 hands to wage law. William de Blida has the same day.

893 JUDGEMENT BY WRIT • <further> Robert le Cupper of Nottingham <offered> complains of Thomas de Roderham of Nottingham. Thomas unjustly detains £4. On Sat before the feast of St Laurence last (6 Aug 1323) in Robert le Cupper's house where he lives Robert le Rede bought 10 (dece...) quarters of malt for £4 from Margery (Marg'ia), Robert le Cupper's wife, for the use (ad opus) of John le Bele; Margery was unwilling to hand over or lend (mutuare) the malt to John in her husband's absence only [if] he paid Margery [for] the malt ... On this Thomas came to them and Robert le Cupper agreed the sale of the malt and agreed to pay £4 to Robert le Cupper for John on Sat after [the feast of the] assumption of the BVM following (20 Aug 1323) if John should fail to pay for the malt on the day; John paid nothing. Robert le Cupper came to Thomas and
