375 PLEA John Dauson [complains of] Henry Dromeys. Plea: he unjustly detains 20s. On Tues after the feast of invention HC last (8 May 1352) it was agreed between them that John and Henry should ride together from Nottingham to Westchastre on a certain day at which John and Henry would agree, that is, John on a horse (equum) and Henry on a mare (jumentum), and they would return from Westchastre to Nottingham on the said horses without any delay (mora), so that if any of them should come more slowly to Nottingham he would give 20s. to the other arriving first on the morrow of his arrival (si quis eorum tardius venisset ad villam de Not' daret alteri prius venienti 20s. argenti die crastino adventus sui). On this John came to Henry on the appointed day and summoned him to come and fulfill (implere) the covenant. Henry did not come nor fulfilled the covenant ... John often came to Henry and charged (supplicavit) him to pay him 20s.; he was unwilling to pay but detained and still detains [it]. Damages: 40d. He produces suit. Henry comes and defends the force and says that no such covenant was made with John. ... Law with 12 hands. He has day at the next court.
