495 PLEA • Thomas Lambock, chpln, by virtue of the king's writ, attached to reply to Simon de Bertevill. Plea: that with force and arms (vi et armis) he broke (fregit) Simon's close and houses (clausum et domos) at Nottingham and took and carried off Simon's goods and chattels to the value of 100s. Simon says that Thomas with force and arms (bow and arrow) broke his close and houses on Mon after the feast of the nativity of St John the Baptist 26 Edward III (25 June 1352) and took and carried off his goods and chattels: doors, windows and timber (hostia, fenestras et maeremium) to the value of 100s.; he trampled down his vegetables and his herbs in his curtilage (olera sua et herbas suas in curtilag' suo conculcavit) against the peace. Damages: £10. He produces suit. Thomas comes in [his own] person and defends the force and says he is not guilty to coming with force and arms and to the carrying off of goods and chattels and breaking the clo[se] and houses except the doors and window (preter host' et fenestra); to the carrying off of the doors and window, Simon says [he held] (tene...) the messuage of Thomas by the service of 2s. annual rent [to be paid] in equal parts at the feast of St Martin (11 Nov) and the feast of the invention HC (3 May). Because the 2s. rent was in arrears for 4 years before Mon after the feast of the nativity of St John the Baptist 26 Edward III (25 June 1352) Thomas came and entered the said house and took and carried off the doors and windows for the said rent arrears according to the custom (usum) of the vill as allowed to him (prout sibi bene licuit). Simon says that Thomas broke his close and houses with force and arms and took and carried off his goods and chattels: doors, windows and timber, as a result of his own wrong-doings as charged by his writ because he took them by the said cause without this (ex injuria sua propria prout per brevem suum supponit absque hoc quod cepit ea ex causa predicta). Inq. Precept to the bailiffs to cause 12 [jurors] to come before the next court.

496 [Attached piece 25 x 6cm.] King's writ. The king to the sheriff. 497 [Attached piece 26 x 12.5cm.] Pleas [held] at Westminster from Easter in 3 weeks¹²⁸ before John de Stonore and his fellow justices of King's Bench 27 Edward III (14 Apr 1353).

NOTTINGHAM Thomas Lambock in mercy [for] many defaults. Thomas attached to reply to Simon de Bertevill concerning the plea whereof with force and arms he broke Simon's close and houses at Nottingham, took and carried off goods and chattels to the value of 100s. found in the same place and inflicted other enormities on him to the grievous damage of Simon and against the peace. Simon, by John de Ayleston, his attorney, complains that on Mon after the feast of the nativity of St John the Baptist 26 Edward III (25 June 1352) with force and arms (swords, bows and arrows (gladiis, arcubus et sagittis) Thomas broke Simon's close and houses at Nottingham, took and carried off goods and chattels; doors and windows of the houses and timber to the value [of 100s.] against the peace. Damages: £10. He produces suit. Thomas, by William Matlok his attorney, comes. On this the mayor and bailiffs of the liberty of the vill come and seek their court. Whereof other liberties of this kind have been allowed (allocata fuit) to them as is clear (ut patet) by the king's writ at Trinity Term Edward II roll 39, let them have their liberty in this plea. The bailiffs fixed (prefixerunt) a day with the parties at Nottingham on Wed before Trinity Sun following (15 May 1353). It was said to them that they should show swift justice to the parties otherwise they will return this ... (Et dictum est eis quod predictis partibus celerem justiciam exhibeat alioquin redeant hic etc).

Order that [the sheriff] should take (capias) Henry de Marteneye [who] was found (inventus fuit) in [his] bailiwick into safe-keeping (cum salvo custod') so that he should have him before [the king's] justices at Westminster from Easter [in one] month (21 Apr 1353) to reply to William son of Walter of Burton concerning the plea that he should render to him his reasonable account from the time [he was] his bailiff in Nottingham and receiver of William's money. Et unde tu ipse mandasti [the king's] justices at Westminster ... the quindene of Hilary [Term] [27 Jan 1353] that Henry has nothing in [the sheriff's] bailiwick by which he is able to be summoned (ubi potest sum), and have there this writ. Witness J[ohn] de Stonore ... Westminster 14 Feb 27 (F 14) Edward III (1353).

[Dorse]

John Waleys, sheriff.

This writ was returned to John Samon and John Loterel, bailiffs of the vill, who have full (plenum) return of writs. They have replied that Henry is not found in the liberty, nor has anything by which he could be attached. The sheriff ... that Henry ...

501 [Attached piece 24 x 12.5 cm.] [Pleas held] at Westminster from Easter one month before John de Stonore and his fellow justices of King's Bench 27 Edward III (21 Apr 1353).

[Henry de Mart]eneye was summoned to reply to William son of Walter of Burton concerning the plea that he should render to him his reasonable account [from the time] he was his bailiff in Nottingham and receiver of William's money. Whereof William, by John de ..., his [attorney] says that since Henry was his bailiff of 4 messuages with appurtenances in Nottingham from the feast of St ... 24 Edward III [25 Jan 1350 x 24 Jan 1351] for 2 years following, having the care and administration of all [goods and] chattels [in the messuages]: of oxen, affers, cows, barley, malt and iron-work (boborum, affris, vaccis, equis, ordeo, braseo et ferro), and for the same time [he received] William's money by the hands of William de Boydon and his other various tenants: £10 at ... to the William's profit, then to make and render [an account to him]; he has not yet rendered [the account] to William, but [refused] to render and still refuses. Damages: £20. He produces suit. Henry, by William Matlok his attorney, comes. On this the mayor and bailiffs of the liberty of the vill come and seek [their] court. [Whereof other] liberties of this kind have been allowed to them as is clear by the king's writ at Trinity Term [Edward II] roll 39, let them have their liberty in this plea. The bailiffs fixed a day with the parties at [Nott]ingham on Wed before Trinity Sun following (15 May 1353). It was said to them that they should show swift [justice] to the parties other[wise] they will return this ...
