531 Emma widow of Philip of Chesterfield seeks v John of Kegworth her dower from her free tenement (de libero ten' suo) as is more fully contained in the king's writ directed (directo) concerning this, which writ with the record of this court is found here. Emma np. She and her plgs in mercy. Let the other go quit.

532 [Attached piece 22 x 4cm.] Writ precipe. Order John of Kegworth that justly and without delay he render to Emma widow of Philip of Chesterfield her reasonable dower which came (contingit) to her from the free tenement which was Philip's, her sometime husband's, whereof she has nothing, as she says, and whereof John is deforcing her. If Emma shall have given security for prosecuting her claim, then summon John by good summoners that he be before the king's justices at Westminster from the quindene of Hilary to show why he has not done this and have there this writ. Witness the king, Westminster 12 Oct 37 Edward III (1363).

[Dorse]

Plgs pros: Thomas Wilford, Hugh Smyth.

Simon de Leek, sheriff.

This writ was returned to John Baker and Henry Cok, bailiffs of Nottingham, who have full return of all writs, and to whom the execution of this writ pertains, the response to be made to the sheriff.

Summoners: William Souter, William Robyn.

533 [Attached piece 22.5 x 7.5cm.] Pleas at Westminster before R[obert] de Thorp and his fellow justices of King's Bench from Easter in 3 weeks 38 Edward III [from 24 Mar 1364].

Roll 139.

Nottingham. Emma widow of Philip of Chesterfield seeks v John of Kegworth a third part of a messuage with appurtenances as her dower from the dowry (ex dotacione) of Philip her sometime husband. John, by Oliver de Lufwik his attorney, comes. On this the bailiffs of the liberty of Nottingham come and seek their court. Because other liberties of this kind were granted to them by king's writ at Trinity Term 2 Edward III, roll 39, let them have their liberty in this plea. The bailiffs fixed a day with the parties on Wed in Whit week (15 May 1364).

534 The mainpernors (man) of William Cupper of Nottingham corpus pro corpore to have his body ready (promptum et peratum) whensoever and wheresover (quocumque et ubicumque) John Baker of Nottingham and Henry Cok, bailiffs, made known (scire fecerunt): John Samon of Nottingham, Richard Hanneson of the same, Nicholas of Conisbrough, Thomas de Bothal and William Coteler, mainpernors of William, in the presence of Ralph Torlastun, then mayor.
