Robert of Twyford, sherrif.

This writ was returned to John of Strelley and Henry Chaumberleyn, bailiffs of Nottingham, who have the full return of all writs and to whom the execution of this writ pertains ...

Summoners: John Lymering, Robert Adbolton.

503 [Attached piece 27 x 12cm] Pleas at Westminster before R[obert] de Thorp and his fellow justices of Kings Bench from Easter in one month 41 Edward III (16 May 1367). John son of Nicholas of Cropwell seeks v William del Ker a messuage with appurtenances in Nottingham which John of Cropwell and John Ingram gave to Nicholas of Cropwell and Matilda his wife and their corporal heirs, which after the death of Nicholas and Matilda ought to descend to John son of Nicholas son and heir of Nicholas and Matilda by the terms of the gift. William, by Robert of Spondon his attorney, comes. On this come the bailiffs of Nottingham, by the said Robert their attorney, and seek their court. Because [other] liberties of this kind have been allocated to them (eis allocata fuit) by king's writ at Trinity term 2 Edward III (1328), roll 39, let them have their liberty in this plea. The bailiffs fixed] a day to the parties at Nottingham on Wed in Whit week following (9 June 1367).
