1 + M 3d. William Buteler pl offered himself v Symon de Radclyf <put>. Plea: covenant. Many defaults. William, by his attorney Hamon de Yrton, and Symon in his own person, come. William, by his said attorney, says that Symon on Mon after the feast of the nativity of St John the Baptist 11 Richard II (1 July 1387) hired from him a tenement to hold from the said Mon for a term of 20 years; Symon was to well and competently maintain the houses of the said tenement for the term at his own cost without waste; Symon did not make nor tile the houses by which the timbers of the tenement perished by divers storms and the houses are ruined (ruyne sunt) in Symon's default. Damages: 20m. He produces suit. Symon in his own person comes and defends the force and says he broke no covenant v him. Inq. [The jurors] say he broke the covenant. Damages: ½m.

2 + M 3d. John de Whaplyngton pl offered himself v Richard de Grantham. Plea: debt. Many defaults. John and Richard come in their own persons. Damages: £10. He produces suit. William says that the bond was made under the condition that if William de Ossyngton should hold all covenants between William de Ossyngton and Richard atte Chanouns made by indentures of a messuage granted to him by Richard as is fully shown in the indentures made between them, then he should have the bond for nothing shown per indefametum of the same bond; he says that William de Ossyngton held all indentured covenants on his part until Richard removed him from the messuage by force and arms at Whitsun 11 Richard II (17 May 1388) nor allowed him to occupy the messuage. He seeks judgement if in this cause he can be discharged (onorar' possit) from the £40 or he should owe.
